

Alexandre Silberman

asilbermanvt@gmail.com, (802) 862-3284

Education:

St. Thomas University (Canada) — BA, Digital Journalism and New Media, 2017-2021

Burlington High School — Graduated Magna Cum Laude, 2013-2017

Awards:

- Newseum - Al Neuharth Free Spirit Journalism Scholar, 2016
- Journalism Education Association
 - National High School Journalist of the Year Runner Up, 2017
 - National Student Journalist Impact Award, 2017
- Quill and Scroll - National Winner: Feature Writing, Political Writing, 2017

Experience:

VTDigger.org - Reporting Intern, July 2017—Present

- Write general assignment stories on statewide news and politics
- Assist with coverage of the Burlington area

Freelance Journalist, April 2016—July 2017

- Published photography, writing and video with various publications including the Burlington Free Press, Addison County Independent and Kids VT Magazine

BHS Register - Senior Editor, September 2016—June 2017

- Work with photographers and reporters to edit stories and assign coverage
- Coordinate the approach to promoting our content via social media accounts
- Handle breaking news coverage and produce livestream broadcasts
- Write stories for publication in print and online and ensure that deadlines are met

LA Times HS Insider - Student Advisory Board Member, September 2016—June 2017

- Meet biweekly with fellow board members to plan content initiatives

Burlington Free Press - News Intern, March 2016—August 2016

- Wrote two to four articles a week on news throughout the state
- Provided breaking news coverage including the Vermont primary election
- Shot photos and produced video content

Cuban American Friendship Society - Media Specialist, April 2016

- Traveled to Cuba to cover a youth baseball trip
- Wrote daily blog with photos that reached over 50,000 views
- Produced trip documentary, provided content to media organizations

Skills: Strong digital reporting skills including InDesign, Photoshop and Final Cut Pro.