It's easy to get distracted, Fry...

Especially when summer is around the corner. Warm weather, long days, parties... temptation is everywhere! It is so important to treat yourself — to do things that build you up, promote your mental wellness and help keep your creative juices flowing. Life needs a surge of fun every once in awhile!

But remember, for each day you choose to play, you also gotta balance it with a few days of that hustle. Because if you want this life, the life of being your own boss, building your own business, and making a name for yourself...

THEN YOU GOTTA GET AFTER IT!

You gotta find that balance between creating memories and creating your dream. You gotta remember why you're doing this in the first place: is it for your family? Your kids? Your future? Your desire to create? Your need for change?

What will keep you focused on building your business, all summer long?
