Speed Skating Medalists Brittany Bowe and Erin Jackson to Team Up at Local Raising Cane's

Stars will reunite after Winter Games to surprise Customers in Salt Lake City drive-thru today

SALT LAKE CITY (Feb. 25, 2022) – U.S. speed skaters Brittany Bowe and Erin Jackson's close friendship was already in the spotlight before the two headed to Beijing to represent America on the world stage. Today, fans in Salt Lake City will get to see the athletes bond over another shared passion: Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers!

After clinching her position for Beijing, Bowe gave up her spot so her teammate, Jackson, could skate in her place. Jackson went on to win gold in the 500 meters and made history as the first Black woman to take home a speed skating medal in the Winter Games. Her U.S. teammates voted Bowe the honor of carrying the flag during the Opening Ceremonies, and she brought home a bronze medal in the 1,000-meter race.

Now back in Salt Lake City after their storybook endings in Beijing, the two iconic speed skaters are teaming up once again to surprise and delight fans at their favorite Raising Cane's! True to form, Bowe and Jackson will serve chicken finger meals to "Caniacs" in the drive-thru at a medal-winning pace.
