EUROPE'S HUB OF HISTORIC PRESERVATION AND MODERN PROGRESS

The land of colorful windmills, tulip fields, and tilted houses, Amsterdam radiates an old-world charm that resembles something of a fairy tale. But, beneath the storybook setting, Amsterdam is one of Europe's most modern and innovative cities. Home to centuries-old canals and a thriving tech industry, the city is a masterpiece of contradictions, both timeless and trendy. Come for the history, stay for the stroopwafels.

DAY 1

INSIDER TIP: BAKED GOODS AT DE LAATSTE KRUIMEL

Celebrate your arrival with a traditional treat from De Laatste Kruiemel, a cozy bakery and cafe overlooking a picturesque canal. Savor the authentic Netherland flavors of freshly made pastries and savory delicacies, baked with love and artisanal expertise.

RESTAURANTS

INSIDER TIP: DISCOVER ANNE FRANK'S HOUSE

Pay a visit and your respects at the former residence of Anne Frank, now preserved as a museum of Anne's life and family legacy. Explore the Secret Annex, where Anne lived in hiding for two years and penned her famous diary entries.

MUSEUMS

DAY 2

TRAVERSE THE AMSTERDAM CANALS

Enjoy a quintessential Amsterdam experience aboard an electric handcrafted boat. Glide through the city's enchanting waterways and secret canals, as your captain shares local insight of the city's history and hidden gems. The tour includes an open bar and delectable Dutch refreshments onboard, so you can sip, snack, and relax in luxury.

TOURS BOATING

DAY 3

INSIDER TIP: EMBRACE THE UNCANNY AT THE OTHERIST

For a truly unique souvenir, head to Amsterdam's local Wunderkammer. A modern-day curiosity shop, the Otherist specializes in the unconventional and sometimes macabre. Peruse their eclectic shelves for one-of-a-kind finds like handmade jewelry, whimsical homewares, bewitching decor, and even entomological specimens.

SHOPPING

TOUR THE WORLD-FAMOUS RIJKSMUSEUM

Home to Dutch masterpieces by artistic giants like Rembrandt, Van Gogh, Vermeer, and Ruysch, the Rijksmuseum is the historical crown jewel of downtown Amsterdam. The Rijksmuseum Guided Tour lets you skip the line and get the most out of the museum's expansive collection, with a two-hour guided exploration of the Dutch Golden Age.

TOURS MUSEUMS

INSIDER TIP: ENJOY MICHELIN-STAR DINING AT BREDÁ

Book lunch or dinner reservations at the incomparable BREDÁ, located on the Singel canal in Amsterdam's bustling city center. BREDÁ offers a chef-inspired, modern menu of international cuisine with a seasonal wine selection for the perfect pairing.

RESTAURANTS FINE DINING

EXPLORE HISTORIC AMSTERDAM

Step back in time on a two-hour private walking tour of the Historical Center of Amsterdam. Learn about the city's rich culture and history, from the Dutch Royal family to the origins of the Canal District, as you take in the stunning sights of local landmarks like the Royal Palace of Amsterdam and the 15th-century Nieuwe Kerk.

SIGHTSEEING TOURS

INSIDER TIP: PAIR DUTCH WINES AND REGIONAL FARE AT FLOREYN

End your day or start your evening with an eight-course feast and Dutch wine pairing at Floreyn, a high-end eatery serving up Dutch cuisine at its finest. Inspired by regional recipes, Floreyn's set menus feature seasonal ingredients and house-made liqueurs and desserts, creating Dutch kitchen classics with a modern-twist like pickled herring and horseradish ice cream.

INSIDER TIP: BREAKFAST IN EUROPE'S SMALLEST RESTAURANT

Indulge in the sweet and savory sensation of Dutch pancakes at Upstairs Pannenkoekenhuis. Ascend the narrow stairs of a 16th-century Amsterdam house to a cozy four-table dining area. This tiny establishment packs a big personality and even bigger bites with decadent homemade pancakes featuring flavors like pear and eggnog, sugared ginger, and bacon with brie and honey.

TOUR THE DUTCH COUNTRYSIDE

Journey outside the city on a private half-day tour of two picturesque villages in North Holland's Waterland region. Amble through charming Volendam, amidst colorful wooden buildings and fish markets on your way to local museums and attractions. Hop on a ferry to Marken Crossing, where rustic homesteads and historic workshops set the scene of life in the Dutch countryside. Enjoy a traditional Kibbeling tasting, live cobbling demonstrations, and shopping before returning to Amsterdam.

TOURS DAY TRIPS

DAY 6

MARVEL AT DUTCH WINDMILLS IN ZAAANSE SCHANS

Embark on a semi-private tour to the famous windmills of Zaanse Schans, just 20 minutes north of Amsterdam. This five-hour tour takes you and seven other guests on a delightful adventure through Dutch history. Tour the inside of a working windmill, sample Dutch cheeses at a local cheese farm, try on a pair of traditional Dutch clogs, and much more.

TOURS SIGHTSEEING

INSIDER TIP: GARDEN FRESH TASTINGS AT DE KAS

Housed in a glass-domed garden conservatory, De Kas is a Green Michelin-Starred restaurant that harvests its produce straight from the on-site greenhouse. The multi-course tasting menus change every week to ensure the freshest ingredients on every plate. Take a tour of the lush greenhouse, then settle in at your table and toast your Netherlands vacation with a glass of locally sourced wine or organic beer.

INSIDER TIP: SEARCH FOR TREASURES & ANTIQUES

Wander through Antiekcentrum Amsterdam, the city's premier destination for antiquing. Browse the bygone wares of 55 traders, each boasting troves of art, curiosities, and collectibles. Stop by Brasserie Blazer, located inside the center, for a cup of coffee or a quick bite, so you can fuel up and get back to treasure hunting.

INSIDER TIP: PICNIC AND PLAY IN VONDELPAK

Spend the last day relaxing at a 19th-century public urban park. Sprawling over a hundred acres, Vondelpark is a family-friendly haven with ponds, playgrounds, gardens, and biking trails. You might even catch a performance at the open-air theater.

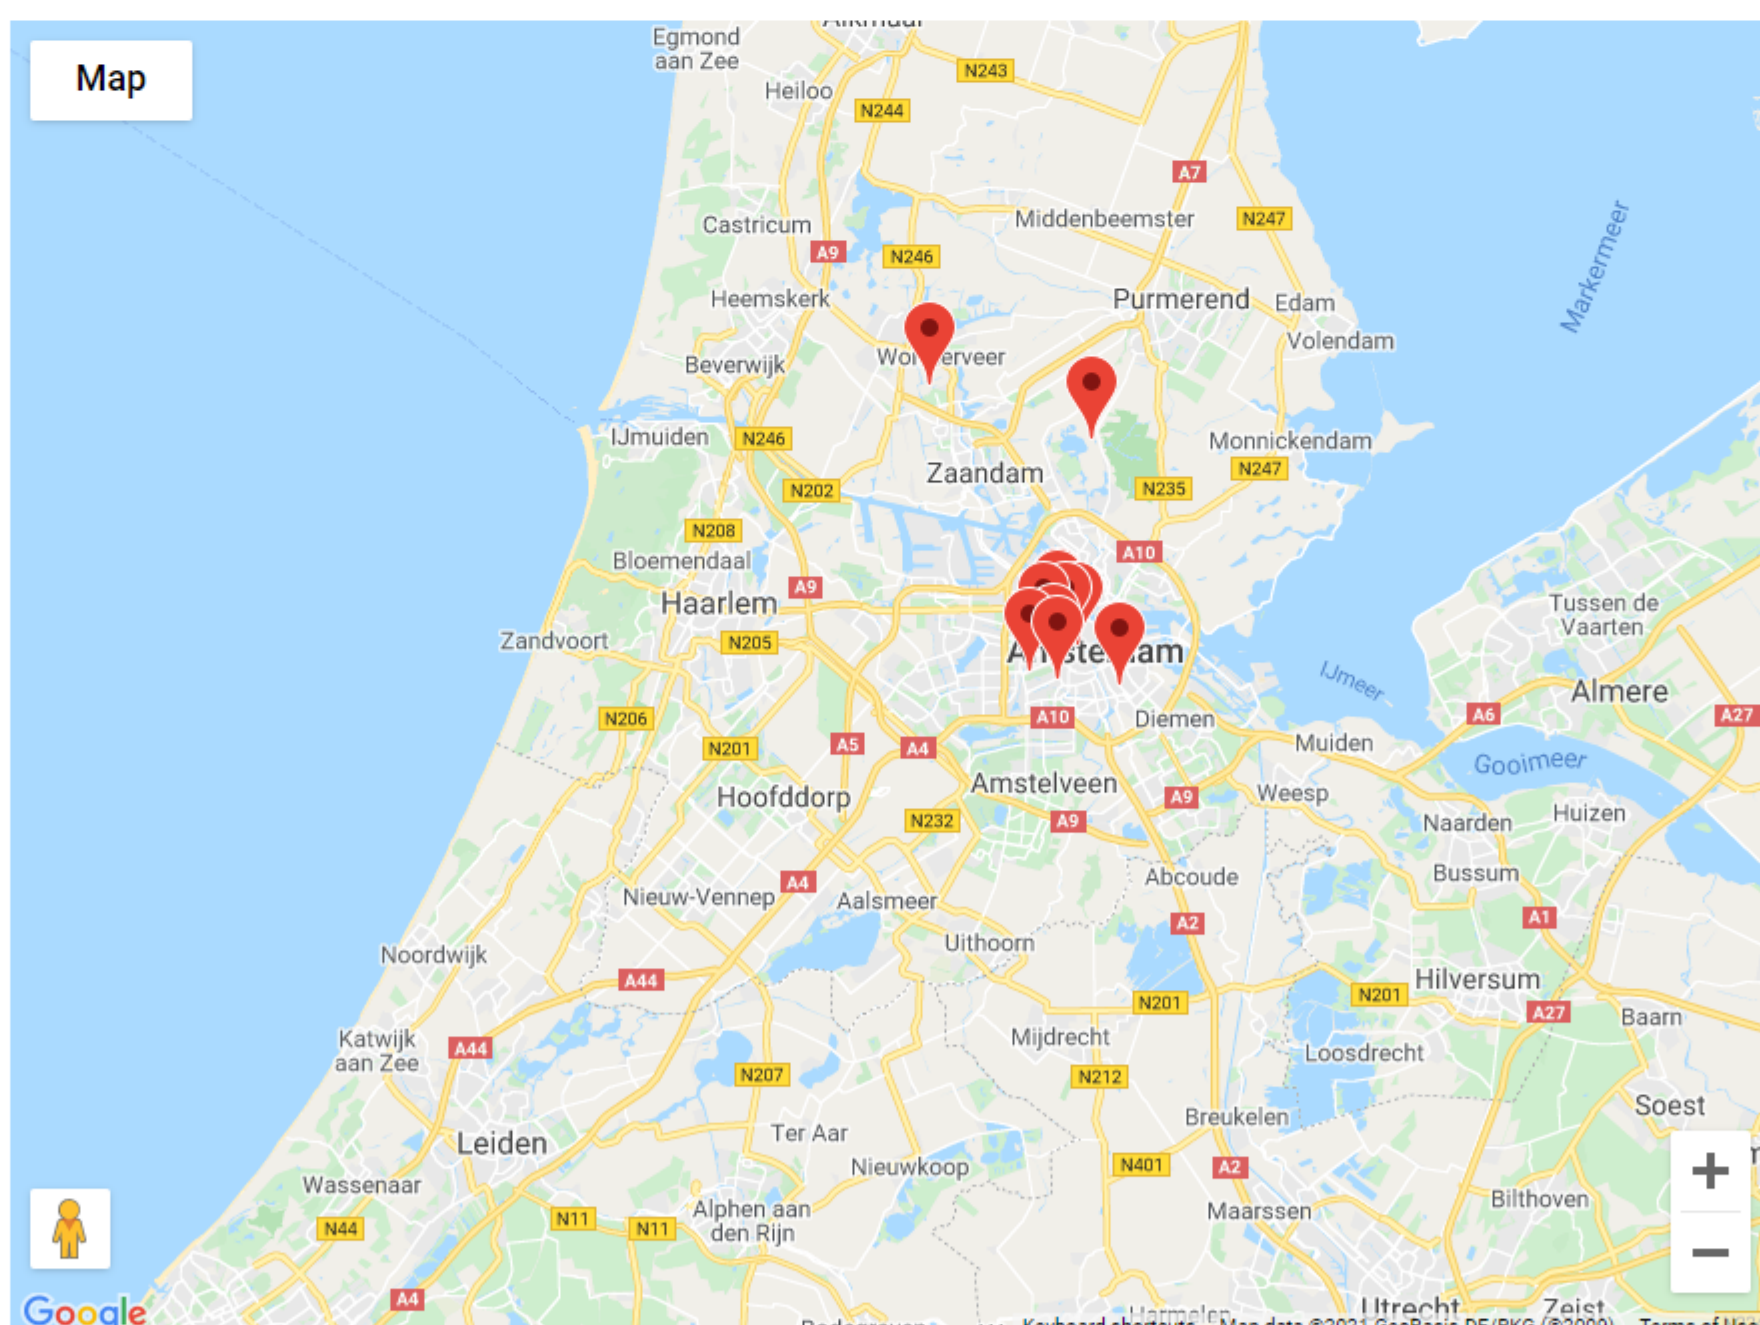

Luxuriate at the Conservatorium Hotel, a crown jewel of Amsterdam hospitality. Located in the renowned Museum Square District, the Conservatorium Hotel puts you in the heart of the city, with cultural attractions like the Van Gogh Museum, Rijksmuseum, and Vondelpark at your doorstep. Once the residence of the Sweelinck Music Conservatorium, the hotel is a stunning city centerpiece, from its palatial architecture to its Art Nouveau interior design. Book a lavish spa experience at the hotel's exclusive Akasha Holistic Wellbeing. Dine with a view at the Conservatorium Brasserie, housed in a floor-to-ceiling glass courtyard. Pamper yourself with the elegant comforts and signature designs of a guest room, suite, or penthouse wing.
