ITINERARY ACCOMMODATIONS

DAY 1

BOOK A DAZZLING NIGHT TOUR

If you arrive late or just want time to check in and relax at the pool, your D.C. adventure can start when the sun goes down. At night, the city transforms into a glowing wonderland providing a unique view of the city's most famous sites. Visit the Lincoln Memorial, the U.S. Capitol, and more on the D.C. The Lights three-hour tour.

SIGHTSEEING HISTORIC SITES TOURS

DAY 2

SEE THE SIGHTS BY ELECTRIC CART

Kick off the day with some fresh air and fun sightseeing. See more sites and save time aboard an open-air electric cart. Each vehicle can hold five passengers, plus your expert guide, so the whole family can enjoy a personalized tour experience. Cruise Capitol Hill and explore the famous monuments and landmarks of the National Mall.

EDITOR'S TIP: EXPLORE SMITHSONIAN MUSEUMS

One of the most popular things to do in D.C. is free! The prestigious Smithsonian Institution offers free admission to its 17 museums, galleries, and zoo. Wander through stunning exhibits at the Museum of Natural History. Encounter giant pandas at the Smithsonian's National Zoo. Whatever you choose, you'll have plenty of fun ways to spend the day.

MUSEUMS EDUCATIONAL

DAY 3

EMBARK ON A GUIDED DAY TRIP

A Historical Powerhouse and Flourishing Arts & Cultural Hub. Your tour begins at scenic Mount Vernon, where a knowledgeable guide will lead through the manor, gardens, farms, and other sites of George Washington's private estate. Then, you will head to the charming streets of Old Town Alexandria for a guided bus trip of local historical attractions.

EDITOR'S TIP: SEND YOUR TASTE BUDS AROUND THE WORLD

Return to D.C. for dinner at Rose's Luxury, a local hidden gem and gourmet dining destination. At first glance, you may not guess that this humble townhouse is one of Washington, D.C.'s Michelin-starred restaurants. Rose's eclectic fare is inspired by the chef's travels abroad and features a unique menu with an equally unique choose-your-own-adventure style of ordering.

RESTAURANTS FINE DINING

DAY 4

TAKE A DEEP DIVE INTO U.S. POLITICS

The Capitol Hill, Supreme Court, and Library of Congress Small Group Tour takes up to eight guests on a guided trek of the city's most influential buildings. Dig into America's political history and Washington D.C.'s journey to becoming the nation's capital.

EDITOR'S TIP: RETURN TO THE NATIONAL MALL

Spanning 2 miles and home to more than 100 unique memorials and landmarks, the National Mall is worthy of a second pass. A self-guided National Mall tour allows for more time to explore "America's front yard." Check out lesser-known memorials in and around the National Mall, like the George Mason Memorial and Signers Island.

SIGHTSEEING HISTORIC SITES

DAY 5

HISTORIC GEORGETOWN ARCHITECTURE TOUR

Once a lackluster port city, Georgetown is renowned today for its 18th century architecture, stately mansions, and a prestigious university. On this tour, you will discover the history and infamous past of Georgetown's rise to fame.

HISTORIC SITES TOURS

EDITOR'S TIP: PICK UP SOME PRESIDENTIAL BAGELS

Swing by Call Your Mother for a late lunch or pre-dinner snack. This D.C. deli boasts a visit from President Biden, who celebrated with bagels after being sworn in. The walk-up window service is known to gain a line, so it's best to order online before you arrive.

CASUAL DINING RESTAURANTS

EDITOR'S TIP: LUXURY SHOPPING AT M STREET

Hit the street for an afternoon shopping in Georgetown. Laid as one of the country's best shopping streets, M Street's charming stretch of historic brick-faced storefronts and bistros is a favorite spot among locals. Stop for a treat at an al fresco cafe and browse artisan shops and designer boutiques for that special something.

SHOPPING

DAY 6

RETRACE THE STEPS OF CIVIL RIGHTS HEROES

Visit National Historic sites and discover the history of African-American culture on a half-day African-American History Tour. Walk in the footsteps of Civil Rights icons as you follow a historical path of U.S. history. Conclude your tour with reserved entry into the National Museum of African American History and Culture.

TOURS MUSEUMS

EDITOR'S TIP: UPSCALE SEAFOOD AT FIOLO MARE

Head to Fiola Mare for fine dining with a waterfront view. This D.C. seafood restaurant features coastal Italian cuisine and a luxurious modern atmosphere. Share a signature seafood tower while watching the sun set over the Potomac River.

RESTAURANTS FINE DINING

DAY 7

EDITOR'S TIP: HUNT FOR ONE-OF-A-KIND SOUVENIRS

Wrap up your whirlwind D.C. adventure with a trip to Union Market, an artisan hub and beloved community staple. Peruse the shops of over 40 vendors for unique gifts and locally made mementos. Grab a quick bite or some last-minute snacks for the trip back home at Union Market's food hall, home to everything from a bagel-garnished Bloody Mary to an ice-cream-packed falooda.

RESTAURANTS SHOPPING

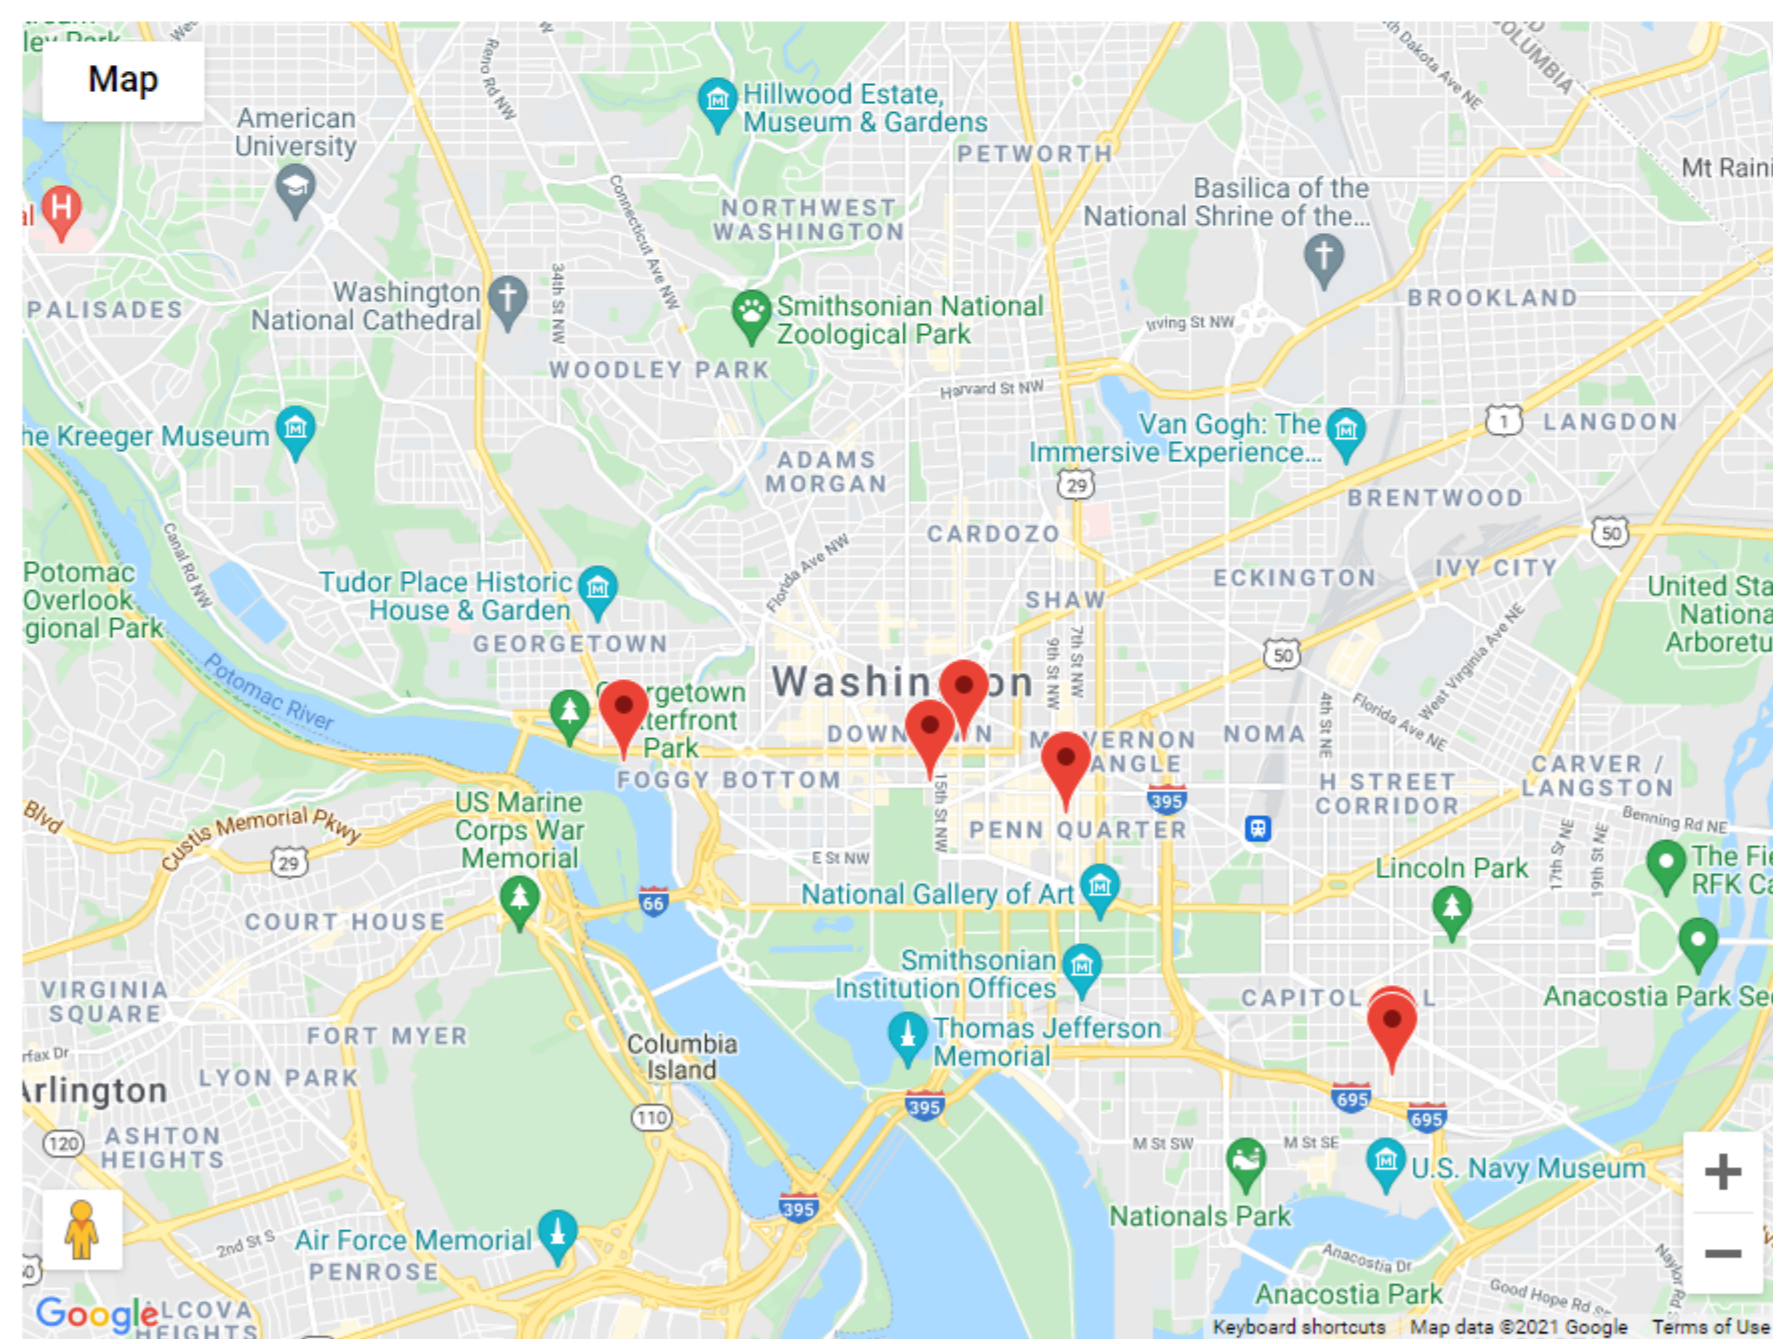

For a winning combination of historical prestige and modern luxury, look to The Jefferson. This historic boutique hotel was first built in 1923 and was extensively renovated to infuse modern-day elegance into the stately Beaux Arts design. Choose from a selection of decadent rooms and suites for an unparalleled D.C. vacation. Just five blocks north of The White House, the downtown location puts you close to iconic D.C. attractions – ask the in-house historian for one of her custom self-guided tours. Two on-site dining venues plus Michelin-star room service give you access to upscale cuisine. Be sure to try The Greenhouse's weekend brunch under the beautiful skylight and sip on The Jefferson's namesake cocktail at Quill Bar and Lounge. from $357 /night

The epitome of sophistication and a Travel + Leisure World's Best Award winner, Hamilton Hotel provides a lavish stay in the heart of downtown D.C. Savor masterfully crafted cocktails at Society, the city's premier luxe microbar and authentic Italian classics at Via Sophia, both located in the hotel. Enhance your trip with exclusive dining packages, like a curated brunch-style picnic basket. Take advantage of on-site amenities like the 24-hour fitness center, featuring Peloton Bikes. Rest and recharge each night in a plush room or suite embellished in modern decor and furnished with deluxe amenities like Egyptian cotton bedding. When you're ready to explore, you can enjoy the convenience of walking distance to historical landmarks and local attractions. from $166 /night
