

E-DISCOVERY IN TODAY'S LAW FIRMS

The collection, organization, production, and filtering of physical discovery materials represent the average attorney's largest woes in the preparation and trial of cases. Thanks to the innovation and accessibility of eDiscovery, attorneys now have a different beast that relies on adequate internet connection and the selection of one of hundreds of various eDiscovery software providers or end-to-end servicers.

68%

OF ALL RESPONDENTS SURVEYED WITHIN LAW FIRMS, 68% RECEIVED A REQUEST FROM THEIR CLIENT FOR EDISCOVERY

73% OF RESPONDENTS FROM LAW FIRMS SURVEYED WORLDWIDE CITED "E-DISCOVERY BEST PRACTICES" AS THE PRIMARY TRAINING THEY PROVIDE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL

46% OF FEDERAL JUDGES AGREED THAT THE TYPICAL ATTORNEY DOES NOT POSSESS THE KNOWLEDGE NECESSARY TO EFFECTIVELY COUNSEL CLIENTS ON EDISCOVERY MATTERS

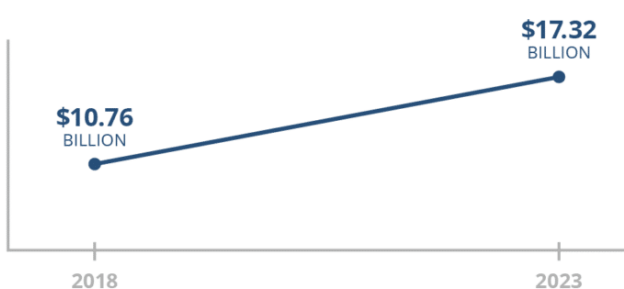

THE AVERAGE TIME IT TAKES A LAWYER TO FIND A KEY DOCUMENT USING EDISCOVERY IS 16 MINUTES, A 69% TIME SAVINGS.

IN A RECENT SURVEY OF 30 FEDERAL JUDGES, 60% CITED NO OR POOR COMMUNICATION BETWEEN PARTIES AS THE BIGGEST CAUSE OF PROBLEMS IN EDISCOVERY LITIGATION

eDiscovery Market Growth

THE PREDICTED EDISCOVERY MARKET GROWTH FROM 2016 TO 2023

Sources:

<https://www.exterro.com/blog/e-discovery-fact-week-starts-today/>

<https://www-statista-com.libweb.lib.utsa.edu/statistics/952556/legal-services-personnel-top-training-topics-worldwide/>

<https://legal.thomsonreuters.com/en/insights/articles/8-myths-about-ediscovery>

<https://www.exterro.com/blog/2-common-sense-ways-attorneys-can-improve-e-discovery-practice/>