Test, What's Most Important to You?

Using your selections, we'll suggest the type of Medicare plan we think is right for your needs.

Having lower monthly plan premiums is important, even if I pay more to my healthcare providers directly for their services.

Medicare Advantage plans offer monthly premiums as low as $0, but you'll pay out-of-pocket costs, such as copays and coinsurance, up front directly to the provider.

Having lower out-of-pocket costs is important, even if I pay a higher monthly premium for my coverage.

Medicare Supplement Insurance plans can pay for most of your covered out-of-pocket costs to providers, but your upfront monthly premiums will be higher.

Test, What's Most Important to You?

Using your selections, we'll suggest the type of Medicare plan we think is right for your needs.

I want to choose doctors and facilities that accept Medicare and are in my plan's approved network.

To help control costs, Medicare Advantage plans use a network of providers you may select from.

I want the flexibility to choose doctors and facilities nationwide that accept Medicare regardless of network.

With Medicare Supplement plans, you can generally choose any provider nationwide that accepts Medicare.

Test, What's Most Important to You?

Using your selections, we'll suggest the type of Medicare plan we think is right for your needs.

I want coverage such as prescription drugs, dental, and/or vision to be included in my plan.

Medicare Advantage plans may include additional benefits, like prescription drugs, vision and hearing coverage, bundled into a single plan.

I want to purchase coverage such as prescription drugs, dental, and/or vision separately.

Medicare Supplement Insurance plans allow you to add additional benefits by selecting each individually.

A Medicare Advantage plan seems right for you!

Now let's see if we can help you save on any prescriptions you may have.

Medicare Advantage plans come in many different types. After we help you check for drug savings, we'll ask you a few more questions to help us suggest a better plan by identifying your doctors, drugs, and pharmacy to see which plans have them in their network.
