I originally ordered 1 box of the ultimate fort builder. After receiving them we realized their weren't enough for my 3 fort building kids (Ages 3-10). Therefore, I had to order another box.. They absolutely loooove this product though. I catch myself super caught up in the fort building as well. Lol. Anyway, highly recommend!

★★★★★ A fun toy

I ordered one for our three grandchildren to play with while they are staying home and practicing social distancing from others. They all enjoyed it, ages 11, 7 and 3. I ordered a second set so they could expand. It's been a fun toy for them to play with while they spend so much time indoors. It's nice to find something that does not involve a screen and a plug and it allows them to work together. They think of new ideas and redesign it over and over again.

Absolutely the best of the 'fort builder' products on the market - the 5 to 11 year old kids love it! It's high quality, stays together, strong and easy for them to handle. Highly recommended!

★★★★★ Long term use for kids and fun for adults too

I bought this for my 4 year old grandson. He loves it! You can build things or forts. I bought 2 sets so we could make bigger forts which works out great because adults can fit inside. I cover it with blankets and we play cards, lay with pillows and blankets and tell stories or bring flashlights and play pretend. This is a great learning toy for long term use.

My grandchildren had a blast with this set-3 days of non stop play. They put it outside on the deck and filled it with blankets, covered it with mosquito netting and it became a private retreat. They put it in the family room where it became a rocket ship and blasted off to the moon. The 5 year old had no trouble assembling and disassembling. Definitely recommend!

What child doesnt like a hiding place or a dark nook to hide. This has provided hours of family fun and some pleasant quiet time while Mom and Dad were working. Liked it so much we bought a second set.

✓ Yes, I would recommend this product.

★★★★★ Amazingly versatile constructions

My 6 year old has made a drive-thru restaurant, a house for his animals, the buildings included in the manual, etc. I have him clean up each night and each day he makes something new. I am ordering another set so he can make taller and larger structures with these as opposed to continuing to use my furniture.
