

FHM BAR OF THE MONTH

★ IN THE COOL CAMP! ★ CAFÉ CAPRICE

THIS PLACE, WE THOUGHT WE'D NEVER GO TO...

As we roll into larny Camps Bay – long thought to be the last outpost of deeply tanned male model types and their equally deeply tanned modelly girlfriends, and toursits, we shuffle along the pavement through the throngs of the tanned. In our black jeans and Motörhead tee, we feel overdressed, out of place and too tattooed as we slink into Café Caprice, skirting the pretty patrons lounging on comfy furniture, smoking French cigarettes quaffing flamboyantly coloured cocktails while discussing their latest modelling assignments and Top Billing.

If there is any sort of dress code here, it stops at shorts, slops and sea sand. The bar's air-conditioned cool offers welcome respite and we drape ourselves over the bar, watching as the barman bounces ice cubes off his biceps while charming the fake tan off a German tourist. Jazzy afro-house beats drip seductively from the speakers.

over and, with the kind of smile that waits for thirsty animals on riverbanks, suggests we try a Rock Star Mojito. We try four.

As the sun sinks low over a shimmering Atlantic horizon, the beachgoers turn into beautiful visions of pastel-hued creatures, gathering in ever-growing numbers at this watering hole of delight to slake their thirsts, consume finely crafted meals or shake their lithe forms in rhythm to the tribal beats being played by a bearded, sandalled DJ we would later call "God". ★

INVITE US TO YOUR LOCAL!
Email fhmmail@fhm.co.za

And who said pink drinks weren't manly, bru?

Pretty girls were allowed feet on couches

FHM'S MAN

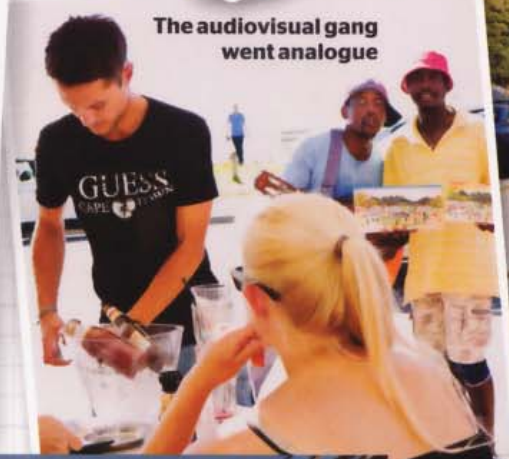

Even with the moustache of Satan himself, FHM was feeling the heat

"It's, like, the mountain makes us so chilled, man"

Café Caprice

The audiovisual gang went analogue

Camps Bay jaywalking was an act of rebellion against Helen

Ferdie was still beaming from the garden poo

PUB QUIZ!

NOW TRY YOUR HAND AT BEING IN THE CLEVER CAMP!

- 1 Which international FHM model and lingerie boss has graced the covers of some 250 magazines?
- 2 Biscayne, Bel Air and Impala are all models of which popular Sixties car made by Chevrolet?
- 3 What is a capriccio?
- 4 Which cocktail was invented by African slaves working in the cane fields of Cuba during the 19th century?
- 5 Name the second largest ocean.
- 6 Who were the first people to begin the camping thing?
- 7 If you enjoy plastic flamingos, garden gnomes and the music of Kylie Minogue, your style is said to be...
- 8 Which famous South African rugby player originally opened Café Caprice?
- 9 True or false: Paris Hilton thinks Café Caprice is "huge!"
- 10 Name the director of action blockbusters such as Transformers, Bad Boys, Armageddon and Pearl Harbour?

CESS III