WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR

Boy, 4, walks tall on new legs

By Emily Horner

BRAVE little William Reckless grins as he takes his first steps five months after losing his legs to sepsis.

William, four, was given prosthetics and has been learning to walk all over again.

In an emotional video, he takes small steps as parents Gemma, 30, and Michael, 38, cheer in the background.

Gemma, from Nottingham, said: "When your baby takes their first steps it's magical but when they have to learn a second time, the pride we feel is something else. He's still upbeat with a good attitude – better than most adults would."

They want to raise awareness of sepsis, a serious illness caused by the body's response to an infection.

A step at a time... William walks again and with mum Gemma
