ASK LJUBENKA

My family and I are going on a cruise for the first time but I do not know what to take.

What would you recommend for a Pacific Island cruise?

You certainly have a fun holiday planned and ensuring you have everything you need will make you feel more confident and at ease while you are away. The most important thing is to pack wisely and take enough clothes in a similar colour palette and/or print that you can successfully mix and match.

Since it'll be summer, you'll be able to pack lighter clothes. I would suggest taking a maxi dress or two, a skirt, shorts, a couple of swimsuits, a tunic to wear over your swimming togs, a couple of tops, a pair of pants/capris, a cardigan or light jacket, sandals, waterproof jandals, a wide-brim hat, sunscreen, sunglasses and a more formal dress to wear at night if there is a special occasion planned on board. Remember to pack clothes in natural fabrics (like cotton or linen) as much as possible so your skin can breathe on those balmy days and evenings at sea.

Enjoy your holiday and don't forget to take a fabulous book! See more from Ljubenka on Instagram @holdtheglamour.
