One night with you!

Hey, hey, hey! Whether you were raised on rock, or have a burning love for a little less conversation, get ready to don your blue suede shoes and celebrate the legend himself.

We're commemorating 85 years of Elvis Presley and 50 years since the original release of Elvis: That's The Way It Is.

For one night only, the film returns, remastered, in an unmissable event for fans around the world on Thursday 13 August.

"Mixes fascinating rehearsal footage with electrifying performances" - Anna Smith, BBC Film Review

About the film

On July 31, 1970, in Las Vegas, Nevada, Elvis Presley staged a triumphant return to the concert stage from which he had been absent for almost a decade. His series of concerts broke all box office records and completely re-energised the career of the King of Rock 'n' Roll.

This feature-length documentary and concert film features performances including Love Me Tender, Blue Suede Shoes, Heartbreak Hotel and Suspicious Minds.

Crossing the footlights, revealing the legendary singer as a man preparing for an emotional career comeback, the fans who travelled from all over the world for this history-making event.... and the electrifying live performance of the man who gave us rock 'n' roll.
