

Dylan Jefferies

4407 SE Morrison St. Portland, OR 97215

503-380-5285

Dylanbradyj@gmail.com

LinkedIn

Education

2016-2021 / diploma received

Portland State University,

Bachelor of Arts, English, focus in journalism

Portland, OR

ExperienceGeneral Assignment Reporter, The Bend Bulletin

Summer 2021

- Covered wildfires, homelessness, county government, crime and more in Central Oregon through University of Oregon's Edward Snowden Program for Excellence in Journalism
- Completed ethics case study essays and other journalism training assignments

Journalism Intern, PortlandSocietyPage.com

Summer 2020

- Covered Portland nonprofits as they struggled to adapt to the Covid-19 pandemic
- Recognized for timely articles that revealed the effect of Covid-19 on local communities

Editor-in-chief, Portland State Vanguard

Winter 2020–Fall 2020

- Lead large student newsroom through the chaotic early stages of Covid-19 pandemic
- Oversaw and participated in coverage of Portland protests and Covid-19.

News Editor, Portland State Vanguard

Summer 2019–Winter 2020 / Fall 2020–Spring 2021

- Covered wildfires, protests, Covid-19, PSU administration and local government
- Trained, coached and managed a team of over 20 contributing writers
- Filled four to five pages of content each week

Contributor, Portland State Vanguard and Pacific Sentinel

Fall 2018–Summer 2019

- Covered campus news, city council and protests

Distribution Manager, Portland State Student Media

Spring 2019–Spring 2020

- Delivered student media publications across PSU campus and downtown Portland
- Oversaw a small team of distributors

Awards

- Wilma Morrison Award for Excellence in Journalism
- Oregon Newspaper Publisher Association 2021 Collegiate Awards: Third Place Best Series, First Place Best Special Section

Volunteer HistoryFront Desk Volunteer, Street Roots

Spring 2021–present

- Volunteered at Street Roots, Portland's award-winning weekly investigative street newspaper.
- Helped out with day to day operations at Street Roots office in Downtown Portland
- Interviewed Street Roots vendors and wrote weekly vendor profiles

Work History

Crush Bar PDX

Bartender

Aug. 2018–Sept. 2019

Fred Meyer Grocery

Floor manager

March 2016–Aug. 2018

Woodcrafters Lumber Co.

Floor clerk

Nov. 2014–Jan. 2016