

Optimism Prevails Among Small Business Owners

The results are in, and the future is looking bright for small businesses. Our annual survey of small business owners reveals positive sentiment about the economy and sales prospects in 2020.

Findings include:

65% of small business owners expect the economy to grow

50% of respondents plan to increase capital spending

66% expect the US-China trade situation won't affect their business

Click below for more results, and call us at 800.695.4998 to jump start your 2020 business plans. QuickBridge offers a range of flexible, short-term business loans so you can invest in your company's future today.

LEARN MORE

