

Kailey Broussard

Accountability Journalist

Phone

337-781-5926

Email

kaileybrou@gmail.com

Website

kaileybroussard.com

Experience

Arizona PBS/Cronkite News

August 2019 – December 2019

Washington Correspondent Washington, D.C.

Covered Arizona's congressional delegation on myriad issues, including impeachment and sustainability, for digital and broadcast production.

Carnegie-Knight News21

May 2019 – August 2019

Reporting Fellow Phoenix

Reported on federal disaster aid and response in a 10-week long investigation "State of Emergency." Photographed the faces and state of development in rural, wildfire-prone San Diego communities. Researched and reported on contractor spending for digital publication.

Digital Intern/Freelancer

May 2017 – July 2018

The Advocate Baton Rouge, La.

Contributed breaking news content, headline optimization, multimedia elements, social media production and front page optimization to Louisiana's largest digital news organization. Reported visually on the faces of the 2016 floods in southeast Louisiana. Freelanced for Baton Rouge and Acadiana publications from 2016-2018.

The Vermilion

May 2014 – May 2018

Reporter, Web Editor, Managing Editor Lafayette, La.

Served under various positions for my undergraduate newspaper at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette across four years. Highlights include redesigns of thevermilion.com, investigative reports surrounding the university and managing a seven-person news staff and 30+ editorial staff.

Education

Arizona State University

August 2018 – December 2019

Master of Mass Communication, Journalism

University of Louisiana at Lafayette

August 2014 – May 2018

Bachelor's in Mass Communication, Journalism

Skills

- DSLR Photo and Video Production
- Audio Production
- Data Visualization
- R Studio for Journalism
- HTML/CSS
- BLOXCMS
- Wordpress Content Management
- Lightroom
- Photoshop
- InDesign
- Premiere
- Adobe Audition
- Adobe Illustrator