“Brooke has displayed the type of dedication and professionalism that anyone would want when working on a project. Her attention to detail and courtesy is a mark of her own work ethic. She was more than consistent in keeping us updated on how our story was going and always made sure that we were getting what we wanted. Conducting our business with Brooke made the process of writing this story fun and educational. We look forward to future works with her and would recommend her to any of our clients.”

— Patrick Alexander, Development Director, Easter Seals

“Not only was [Brooke] able to produce a nice story, but she took the time to understand my industry to make the piece more effective and meaningful to the reader. She did more for us than just write copy, she serviced our account... I was very happy with the work Brooke produced and I look forward to working with her again. I recommend her and her work highly.”

— Heather Snyder, Marketing Director, EyeCare Specialties of Lincoln

“Brooke is a true professional. I could immediately tell that she knew what she was doing simply by the questions she was asking initially. She got a clear and complete understanding of what I was looking for, and then she was off. Brooke takes ownership of the projects that she begins. I felt more like we were business partners. I felt like we were working together, exchanging ideas, and brainstorming. I had no doubt that the work was going to be great!”

— Jason Walker, CEO, The eNthem Company

“Brooke is very professional and easy to work with, I recommend them without reservation.”

— Nathan, Owner, Sierra Supertech

“I enjoyed working with Brooke. She answered all of my questions in a timely manner which was very important to me.”

— Stanley Popovich, Author, Managing Fear

“Once the goals of the project(s) were articulated, I was wholly confident Brooke would deliver what I required in the agreed timeframe. Brooke has a holistic approach to the projects we engaged her for. She researched the subject matter and in a short period of time provided clean, technically accurate and well polished copy.”

— Thomas Petersen, President, Myriad Network
