READER w/CUT: Nearly $30,000 Donated To 8 Senior Centers Throughout Ozarks

Eight senior centers in southern Missouri will soon receive a total of nearly 30,000 dollars in grant money to improve their facilities. The Hearld Ambler Fund for Senior Centers is administered through the Community Foundation of the Ozarks.

One of the senior centers receiving a grant is the Winona Senior Center in south-central Missouri. It's getting nearly 3,000 dollars. Treasurer Janet Sarris says the money will be used to fix the facility's deteriorating floors.

"Our kitchen floor and our prep area is awful bad and it needs to be replaced. It cannot even be sanitized, it's cracked and broke up so that's what we're going to use the money for."

Senior Centers provide meals, activities and other help to senior citizens. Other senior centers receiving grants are in Ash Grove, Cabool, Cassville, Fair Grove, Kimberling City, Mount Vernon and Rogersville.
