Owner - Legal Affairs and Trials with Meghann Cuniff

▪ January 2023 – present

- Reporting on trials and other legal affairs in Los Angeles and Orange County.

Senior West Coast Correspondent - Law & Crime News

▪ July 2022 – January 2023

- Reported on major celebrity cases, including the trials of Harvey Weinstein, Danny Masterson and Tory Lanez. My reporting on Lanez's trial for shooting Megan Thee Stallion made me a viral sensation nicknamed Meghann Thee Reporter and was featured on BET.com

Reporter and editor - ALM Media

▪ June 2021 – July 2022

- Edited three reporters and the Am Law Litigation Daily for Law.com and all platforms while reporting on litigation in California and beyond. My live-tweeting of Michael Avenatti's wire fraud trial earned national recognition.

Reporter - Freelance

▪ January 2019 – present

- Reporting on legal affairs, politics and general news for various outlets, including Bloomberg Law, the Washington Post, The New York Times, Los Angeles Magazine, American Bar Association Journal, Los Angeles Times Community News, Los Angeles Business Journal, the Forward and the international trade website ECigIntelligence.

TV and radio correspondent - Freelance

▪ October 2010 – present

- My reporting has led to appearances on true-crime shows, radio news programs and television newscasts, including CBS News "48 Hours," ABC News "Nightline," and several shows on Oxygen and Discovery ID.

Reporter - Los Angeles Daily Journal

▪ March 2016 – April 2020

- Covered the California Supreme Court after reporting on law firms and litigation in Orange County. Coverage of Michael Avenatti's cross-country saga placed second for "best beat reporting" in the 2020 Orange County Press Club awards. Also profiled judges and major players in the judiciary.

Reporter - The Orange County Register

▪ March 2013 – February 2016

- Covered county government after starting out as the San Juan Capistrano reporter.

Breaking news and online editor - The Idaho Statesman

▪ September 2012 – March 2013

- Covered a high-profile mental competency hearing for a serial killer and wrote a two-part enterprise piece on jury grief and bonding that published in newspapers across the country.

Reporter - The Spokesman-Review

▪ December 2005 – September 2012

- Reported on crime, police and courts for the Spokane, Wash., newspaper after covering night breaking news, Idaho K-12 schools and the 2006 Idaho Legislature. Founded the popular cops and courts blog Sirens & Gavels. Helped pioneer the use of Twitter to cover trials live from the courtroom.

Bachelor's degree, political science and news-editorial journalism - University of Oregon, 2005
