Deca Durabolin is an anabolic steroid quite useful for athletes and all those involved in bobybuilding. Nandrolone, the essential substance contained, characterizes Deca Durabolin. This substance causes a disintegration of the muscles, increasing at the same time the amount of testosterone hormone.

Deca Durabolin or Nandrolone is a 19-nor anabolic steroid that's derived from the testosterone hormone. A slight modification to testosterone makes Nandrolone almost 2.5 times more anabolic and very weak on the androgenic scale. There are various esters that are attached to it.

Unfortunately, Deca Durabolin usage very commonly has the adverse side effect of interfering with recovery of natural testosterone production after a steroid cycle. Adverse side effect on libido and/or erectile function is also common, but typically only when dosage is at least 200-400 mg/week or when the drug is used alone at any effective dose.
