Bradstreet Craftshouse Helps Thanksgiving and Black Friday Workers Punch Out Happy

Hennepin Avenue Craft Cocktail Bar and Restaurant Offers Retail and Restaurant
Workers Free Punch on Thanksgiving and Black Friday

MINNEAPOLIS, November 25, 2015 – Restaurant and retail store employees scheduled to work on Black Friday, or worse still, Thanksgiving – have an extra reason to punch out happier this holiday. Bradstreet Craftshouse on Hennepin Avenue in Uptown, will be offering free seasonal holiday punch to any holiday worker who shows up after their shift ends and before the craft cocktail bar and restaurant closes at 2.00am.

“We wish everyone could punch out and be with family or friends this holiday,” says Andrew Campbell, general manager, Bradstreet Craftshouse. “If that’s not possible, we at least wanted to offer a little seasonal cheer to those who have to work. Happy Thanksgiving!”

Workers wishing to try Bradstreet’s new holiday punch will need proof of employment and, of course, must be 21 years or over. Offer limited to one free glass per employee. Punch and all other house cocktails plus dinner and late night menu items will be available and regularly priced throughout the holiday.

About Bradstreet Craftshouse (www.bradstreetcraftshouse.com)

Named for the renowned Minneapolis designer, John Scott Bradstreet, The Bradstreet Neighborhood Craftshouse brings a devoted and handcrafted approach to quality cocktails, evening dinners, bar snacks, and weekend brunch. A warm, inviting environment with rich finishes makes Bradstreet feel like a living room away from home. Brunch service runs from 10:00am to 2:00pm Saturdays and Sundays while a 3:30pm happy hour and a 5:00pm Dinner Service are offered every day. Serving a wide-range of menu items until 1:00am each day of the week makes Bradstreet a signature destination and one of the only Twin Cities’ restaurants offering craft cocktails and exceptional food so late into the night. Bradstreet became famous in 2009 for introducing the craft cocktail movement to Minneapolis.
