RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- Ethnographic Research Training for Anthropology Students in Indramayu, West Java (2018)

I was able to do research for 13 days by living with the locals (3 days for preliminary research + 10 days for intensive research) about children who worked as sheep herder in a small village in Indramayu, West Java.

I combined interview and participant observation. I wrote an essay about my research to be presented to lecturers. The title of my essay is "Anak Gembala: Sebuah Kajian Tentang Pekerjaan Anak (Children's Work) dan Agensi Anak yang Bekerja Sebagai Penggembala Ternak di Indramayu, Jawa Barat", focusing on children's work in agricultural sector and also examining their agency, a topic which gain less attention in social research.

- Research for Undergraduate Thesis Purpose (2019)

I combined participant observation and interview methods to obtain primary data. I interviewed several administrators of the largest vegetarian organization in Indonesia and several other vegans in Jakarta. I got an A for this undergraduate thesis.
