Reflections & Memories

Poem: "A Mother's Prayer"

"The following words were the torch that guided my steps through life. As I cross the threshold into Your Holy kingdom, my final prayer is that our work be acceptable to You:"

God, there are times when i ask myself, just what is Your purpose for me as I walk through each day? Please search my heart and reveal to me what You wish for me to do to glorify Your holy name. Let Your Spirit guide me as I teach my children to live each day for You. I confess that I cannot do what is necessary alone, but with You, Lord, all things are possible. In Jesus' name. Amen.

-Donna Johnson

Obituary

Emmer Howard Freeman Johnson called her heavenly home on March 16, 2016, at West Carroll Hospital. Emmer was boorn to the late John and Rosie Howard on September 2, 2016. She confessed Christ at an early age at the Brigh Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church. While in Detroit, she served as a faithful servant at the Greater Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Robert Robinson. In 1994 she returned to Bright Morning Star Missionary Baptist church where she remained until God said, "well done."

She was proceeded in death by her children (John, Joe, James, Debra, and Gary) and ten siblings.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory her husband Fred Johson, Bobbie Epting, Della Mitchell, Billie Pritchard (John), Joyce Blackmon, Willie Marshall (Gretchen), all of Oak Grove, LA, Patricia Marshall of Kentucky, Doris Griffin (Wendell), Gregory Johnson of Detroit Michigan, Donna Johnson of Missouri, five generations with hundreds of grandchildren, a host of nieces and nephews, and other relatives.
