

Q: HOW LONG HAS TRIBE OF LAMBS BEEN ACTIVE?

A (Paidel): Exactly 3 years ago we launched in a trial crowdfunding campaign that ended up being very successful. The following January we registered our name and it's been rolling every since.

Q: THIS ISSUE OF STANDOUT FOCUSES ON SUCCESS STORIES - WHAT DOES SUCCESS MEAN TO YOU AS AN ENTREPRENEUR, AS A DESIGNER, AND AS A PERSON?

A (Paidel): When I first started thinking about success, it really meant something in terms of status and money. And this is the cultural norm. Now that we're in the "business" of helping people and compassionate consumerism, I know true success can't be measured that way. Success is taking risks, moving beyond your fear, lifting others up and making a stand for what is fair, just and equal in this world. I wake up every morning joyful and fulfilled because I live my life, in all aspects, with compassion as my mantra.

Q: WHAT DO YOU THINK IS TRIBE OF LAMB'S SUCCESS STORY?

A (Paidel): I knew Tribe of Lambs was a success from that very first crowdfunding campaign when we delivered 80 winter jackets (among other items) to children living in the Himalayas. To use my blessings, opportunities and skills to empower children who can't help themselves, now that is truly amazing. Every time we're in India fulfilling on one of our projects, I am totally blown away by the impact that can be made with little effort.

Q: THERE IS A LOT OF WORK THAT HAPPENS BEHIND THE SCENES IN RUNNING A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS. DO YOU HAVE TIPS TO OFFER FROM A BUSINESS PERSPECTIVE?

A (Haley): I would say be prepared to become so much more than what you expect - you need to become an accountant, tax expert, web designer, social media expert, marketer, customer service, salesman, and project manager. Accept help when it's offered and ask for help when you need it. It's hard to do this alone! Every now and again, step away - obviously it takes passion and drive to run a successful business, but sometimes you need to take a step back and reflect. It's easy to get overloaded with the day - to - day and lose track of the bigger picture.

A (Paidel): Be scared and keep going. Make mistakes and keep going. Get stuck and be amazed at your creative problem solving skills. Never let your ego get in the way of an opportunity. Listen to where your heart wants to take you and use the power of your mind to take you there. Be gentle on yourself and celebrate every little victory. Who you surround yourself with will shape what you do, so put yourself in the best company possible. If it doesn't serve you, love it and leave it.

Inspired? Fired up? Making a difference can be simple by becoming part of the community of compassionate consumerism.

India has approximately 2.1 million people living with HIV and about 170,000 of those are children under the age of 15. Once HIV+, children face immense discrimination, social segregation and is often times abandoned by their families and the State and education system.

Tribe of Lambs supports projects with on-the-ground NGOs in India by dedicating 100% of all its profits off product sales towards tuition, school supplies, uniforms, transport, creating safe places for learning, providing access to facilities and resources required to build bright futures and awareness initiatives in Canada, UK and India.

And you can be part of that Tribe!
