

Original Comedy Game Show, making waves in the Montreal Comedy Scene

(Montreal - October 26, 2021) - If you love comedy, trivia, and the unexpected, Battle of Wits is the show for you! Battle of Wits is a monthly comedy show featuring Montreal's best comedians facing off in 5 rounds of hilarious games the likes of which you've never seen before, at least not this way.

November 11 marks the 2 year anniversary of Battle of Wits first live show and we are doing it up BIG. The show will feature comedians Tranna Wintour, and Paul Baluyot competing against up and coming drag queen Pam Demic in hilarious and ridiculous games.

Hosted by Just for Laughs vet Elspeth Wright, Battle of Wits is an inventive and immersive experience sure to get everyone in the sure to get every audience member bursting with laughter or the right answers!

Elspeth Wright is originally from New Brunswick and started doing comedy in 2019. In her short time in the comedy scene, she has been completely dominating with her quick, original style of comedy. This year she was highlighted by Just For Laughs and ZooFest because of her talent.

Elspeth's creativity and passion for the art of comedy truly explodes on stage during Battle of Wits. "There is no other show like this one. As a comedian, I loved being part of the show but I keep coming back as an audience member just to witness the magic that is Elspeth and Battle of Wits" - Abby Stonehouse (Comedian and producer)

Battle of Wits started in November of 2019 as a monthly show. After a handful of successful live shows, the pandemic shifted things for a lot of producers and comedians. Without hesitations, Elspeth switched to the virtual platform and it soon became a popular weekly online show. While the lockdown was hard, it gave the producer and host a chance to get creative and play around with the format while fine tuning the show into something truly special. It also gave her the opportunity to have amazing local and international guests such as Sean Cullen, Al Val, and Tranna Wintour.

Battle of Wits was ranked #2 Comedy Night in Montreal on Cult MTL's Best of MTL Reader's Poll. The show is live in person once more and better than ever!

-End-

For more information please contact Elspeth Wright by e-mail ElspethRWright@gmail.com or by phone at (613)-295-7325

