THEMED STUDY MUSIC

As someone who loves to romanticize life, I have come to absolutely adore vibey YouTube background music for all occasions. I had “you’re following the mysterious student who is sneaking out of the dormitories (dark academia)” by user oliviaalee on repeat when I was reading a mystery series last year, and I am actually writing and listening to “dark academic playlist to read/study in your room” by user nobody right now. Nemo’s Dreamscapes is my favorite channel if I am not in the mood for classical music, and my first vibey playlist subscription. This user specializes in the “oldies playing in another room” vibe. Sometimes it is a train, a seaside cabin, or just crickets and rainfall outside a window, but, for some unknown reason, I always get so much done when those oldies are playing. Nemo’s Dreamscapes should be printed on my degree at this point. Cannot recommend romanticizing study vibes enough, as it really improves my productivity.
