

THE PRIME
CONCEPTOR & PLANNER

Indonesian WEDDING

As your most professional specialist in Indonesian-style wedding, our expertise covers the fascinating traditions, honorable tributes and intricate details for the most proper wedding you deserve.

Oriental WEDDING

The mastery of oriental wedding lies in the little things: the hidden meanings, symbolic gestures and overall blessings. We respect and adore it's significance, every step of the way.

Corporate

Professionalism is key in all corporate events, including Annual & Gala Dinner, Promotional & Networking Events, Product Launch, to Charity and Appreciation Gathering.

Social EVENT

Birthdays, engagement ceremonies, showers and others, you name it! We'll be there for you in each milestone, ensuring every moment is lived to the fullest.

Anniversary

We celebrate anniversaries to appreciate important events in life. Your precious moment is always worth a repeat, in every imaginable way you wish.

ABOUT US

The Prime Event Planner is a premier event planning service based in Medan, North Sumatera.

Founded in 2010, The Prime Event Planner is established based on its founders' love and passion for celebrations. Our initial project was a personal one for a friend's wedding arrangement, but soon progressed into a fully-fledged event service for all types and scales of events, including weddings, corporate, and other custom events.

We understand the importance of personal touch and elegance to any occasion, thus always strive for events that exude exclusivity, intimacy and significance. To us, a celebration is not a matter of just business, but a representation of your trust and honor which are the driving force for our dedicated service.

Committed to delivering our absolute best, let's make each occasion a momentous one - worthy of a lifetime remembrance.

TJOA

Suwandi is a bit of organizing- freak (but in a good way!). Highly responsible, he is a problem solver who not only knows all the details to everything, but also filled with creative ideas at any given moment. Since day 1, he has put not just time, energy and effort, but also his heart into building Prime. It's always his desire to build a place where happiness, joy and sincerity comes first. His dream is to see Prime going forward as an international wedding planning service. With his passion, his dream may very well just come true.

FREDI WONG

The art of organizing events has always been with Fredi even before the concept of Event Planner as business was born. Since his schooling years, he's been the event-planner. Leading man and person in charge for all sorts of festivities. His genuine passion and creative ideas have shaped Prime Event Planner to the ideal that it is today. As Fredi injects his inspiration, totality in service and endless ideas, you can be sure that Prime Event Planner will continue to be his playland where imagination and brilliance come alive without any limit.

FERA

Signature

Fun, bubbly and reliable- Fera is one of the founders who are currently in charge of Signature, 2nd line of Prime Wedding Planning targeted to mid-range market. With her lively and caring personality, client care is not just thorough, but sincere and perfect all the way. Having a great sense of responsibility and true willingness to serve, Prime has allowed this outgoing girl to continue to bloom to her fullest potential. To her, Prime is the second family she's dreamed of and clients are the friends she's always ready to help.

KENT

Signature

As the marketing head of the Prime, Kent's job is not just about making sure professional client approach or quality service. He is also deeply involved in every aspect of detailed planning, all thanks to his immense love for the entertainment world. With attention to details, Kent brings the definition of party to the Prime, which he regards as his true family. His energy and enthusiasm is contagious, so watch our world because Kent is not stopping anytime soon!
