

3 Simple Freelance writing tips for beginners

Freelance writing can be one of the most rewarding jobs in the world if you love to write. Having the freedom to create your schedule and the opportunity to make a difference are just a few of the reasons to become a freelance writer.

Invest in a course

You don't need a degree to become a freelance writer, but you will need to sharpen your skills to land high-paying jobs. My advice would be to start with a copywriting course. They usually cover a wide range of topics.

However, remember to pick a course that's right for you.

Blog regularly

Practice makes perfect. As a freelancer, it's important to get as much practice as you can get. Starting your own blog allows you to showcase your skills and improve your writing ability. It also helps you create samples of your work which you can include in a pitch to a client.

Learn basic SEO

If you plan to write online, you need to learn Search Engine Optimization (Or SEO). Take time to learn some basic SEO skills. This not only helps your content reach more people but also gives you a competitive advantage. There's a great demand for writers who understand SEO. Learning it will give you a greater chance of landing clients.
