Many of us feel like we are too busy to change old habits and start creating new, healthier ones. We can put off taking care of ourselves until we have more time, less pressure with work, or fewer commitments. However, you don't have to wait for the perfect moment to start making healthy choices. Start small like tracking your steps or drinking more water. Don't overwhelm yourself with too many changes at once, do it one small step at a time. 🚶‍♀️?_
