TUTOR CODE OF CONDUCT

TUTOR CODE OF CONDUCT

- ❖ All tutors should respect and value each child as distinct in their own right, in their part as a member of their community and their family.
- ❖ Respect the relationship of the Student to their siblings, parents, other fellows of their family, and other important persons.
- ❖ Facilitate the development and optimal growth of each student to attain his or her potential. Better tutoring enables many students to transfer learning from one place to another.
- ❖ Use information properly, maintaining confidentiality where suitable, respecting the privacy of students, respecting the right of children to be up-to-date on matters concerning themselves, and evading the misuse of personal information.
- ❖ The tutor must be able to confess their flaws and will seek support wherever need it.
- ❖ Respect the religious and cultural beliefs of the student and oppose any form of oppression, discrimination, or exploitation.
- ❖ No physical contact with students. Physical contact is only suitable in very limited conditions.

- ❖ Do not comment inappropriate or suggestive remarks to or about a student, even in fun, as this could be misunderstood. Inappropriate comments include swearing, innuendo, and discussing their or your close relationships.
- ❖ Never communicate with children via social media platforms including Facebook, Twitter, or other social media.
- ❖ If you do wish to give the child a small reward or gift, please ensure the parents or are happy for you to do so and are responsive that you are doing so.
- ❖ The tutor should understand that their role as an instructor is to help students in evolving learner independence by assisting them to learn how they best develop and learn the abilities required to accomplish their most efficient and effective learning.
- ❖ Give accurate and honest feedback to tutees, while always demonstrating faith in their learning abilities and working to build tutees' self-confidence.
- ❖ While tuition, pay undivided attention, and care to students.
- ❖ Evade establishing inappropriate relationships with tutees. He or She should understand that the relationship with the student is professional rather than personal.
- ❖ Respect every tutee's talent, skills, personal dignity, and uniqueness and at all times by accepting him or her without evaluation.
- ❖ Not to practice a tutoring situation to preach their belief system.
- ❖ Respect, and work to improve sensitivity to, tutees' cultural, and role issues or differences, counting those based on gender, sexual orientation, individual, age, religion, race, ethnicity, culture, disability, national origin, language, and socioeconomic level.

- ❖ Understand the presence of individual learning styles and remain flexible in approach to tutoring.
- ❖ Establish a safe and healthy atmosphere where tutees feel comfortable to inquire queries and admit flaws and weaknesses.
- ❖ Ensure that the tutee has a clear recognition of the tutor's role in adding the class, not substitute for it.
- ❖ Domain expertise knowledge and capabilities have major importance in the task as Tutor.
- ❖ Your major incentive is building the student's self-confidence.
- ❖ The language pupil and the instructor share must be mutually comprehensible at all the times.

HOW IT WORKS?

Tutoring Subjects for Every Market

We offer tuition for students from Kindergarten to college and university in Physics, Mathematics Chemistry, English, General Science, French, ESL, Study Skills and Homework Assistance, and offer home support schooled tutees.

The interactive classroom has been particularly designed to be encouraging to learning and to assist students to focus better. With the Handout and document sharing, teachers can provide students with learning material to help them understand the topic matter better. Students can also practice this feature to upload the homework assessments that they need support with.

The tutor and tutee effort together on a one-to-one session. The tutee can inquire the teacher any queries that they might have related to the topic being discussed. All our instructors are experienced not only in the academic subjects they teach but also in collaborating with tutees to put them at ease so that they feel relaxed clarifying any points of confusion or doubt.

At Face2Face tutoring, we organized our platform with the students' success in mind. We shaped a system that is most efficient for the tutees and their learning process. Our flexible choices to schedule classes, choose teachers to select from, and the wide range of subjects and domains to pick from are dedicated to the best outcome for the students.

All Face2Face tutoring sessions are recorded for internal, ongoing quality control purposes. (We want to make sure that we are always offering the best service and quality possible to all students.)

Parents and guardians can get an update on how the pupil is progressing by communicating with the online administrator.

Finding a tutor: Finding a tutor on Face2Face is a speedy and easy method. Get Register with our website and fill our questionnaire so that we identify exactly what you are searching for. Once we know the subject you need assistance in, how often you need tutoring, what level you are at, and what schedule and timing fit best, we can match you with the teachers that best suit you.

How the classes are conducted: The classes and sessions are hosted in an interactive classroom that is featured with live video, a Multimedia System, and a whiteboard. The whiteboard is used by the instructor to describe the lessons visually to the student.

Assessments: Students getting tuition regularly may occasionally be assessed to conclude their progress. Based on these valuations and any extra information provided by the guardian such as test scores from class, current grades, comments from teachers, etc. the program for the tutee may be adjusted as required to ensure the speedy, most efficient academic progress. The entire intention and purpose of face2face Tutoring are to support students' success academically.
