

SOLUTIONS

LOOKSAR Pro provides an augmented reality-based branding tool. Provides SDKs and allows brand owners and AR software developers to develop augmented reality applications by adding AR content like 3D graphics, animation, audio & video to digital products. Enables application users to scan product labels or printed media to visualize the AR content.

LOOKSAR employs Augmented Reality technology to let you embed a video right on your product and create a unique personal touch and innovative experience for your buyers.

AR For BUSINESSES:

Augmented reality can entirely be a side changer for Businesses by converting the current dull methods. AR benefits industries to come up with new marketing plans with massive outcomes. AR plays a pivotal role, as it changes how we observe things. AR solution pretends the real-life atmosphere while creating a completely immersive user experience.

We empower brands to deliver more value to their audiences and make much more productive interactions.

We can provide the most compatible result if you are considering a core augmented reality creation or intend to assimilate AR into your existing apps.

If you wish to present your contents, services, and goods with augmented realities, we can facilitate you. We empower you to offer innovative and unique methods of experiences to your clients, deliver more value to your customers, and generate much more impactful interactions. Get in touch with us for augmented reality solutions service.

We have functioned with some of the best trademarks in the market and developed AR projects, considered augmented reality apps, and empowered AR integration.

Therefore, we advance in a creative and innovative collection of wall art decor pieces that become alive.

AR For DEVELOPERS:

We recognize that the major asset of Augmented Reality is its exceptional graphic quality that affords the best user experience. However, in AR app development, there is a significant encounter to achieve exterior and interior views.

From games to enterprise and retail, response for quality augmented reality experiences on smartphones and other devices are growing.

Our AR services are matchless, attractive, converting, and accomplished of adding value to your brand in this practical world.

Guaranteeing that whatever is available is closer to reality is what makes the difference.

We offer AR Solutions couturier to your business. Our AR services combine leading-edge technology and ease of use.

Our experience allows us to provide high-quality graphics and content. Our services have a matchless potential for producing the most beautiful experiences across various stages and numerous industry verticals.

Looksar Pro provides an augmented reality-based branding tool. Provides SDKs and allows brand owners and AR software developers to develop augmented reality applications by adding AR content like 3D graphics, animation, audio & video to digital products. Enables application users to scan product labels or printed media to visualize the AR content. The app is workable with iOS and Android devices.

LOOKSAR employs AR technology to let you embed a video right on your product and create a unique personal touch and innovative experience for your buyers.

Web-Development:

Our website developers offer various website design and development solutions, from providing mobile web development services and responsive website designs, to making custom e-commerce and intranet systems using the latest and innovative web technologies.

We recognize the potential of responsive websites. According to Google, you are losing over sixty percent of your website traffic if your site is not optimized for mobile users. We are the best web design solutions agency that offers quality, responsive website development services at a reasonable price.

Scripting & Creative Assistance In the past decade, 360 Digital has provided digital services to businesses in Canada, North America, Australia, Western and Eastern Europe.

VIDEO PRODUCTION:

As the Video Production agency, we are completely altering the way the familiar customer views media. We have the experience, creative knowledge, and expertise due in part to its deep portfolio of past projects for companies, brands, and large corporations alike.

From "Rolling!" to "Cut!" soup to nuts, our dedicated team will work to put together a video marketing strategy that shows sense for your business and marketing goals.

If you do not know where to begin, or new to videos, do not worry. Our video production solutions department is here to solve your queries.

We deliver excellent quality, attention-catching results that are created to achieve and meet the specific objectives of each customer.

We specialize in:

3-D, 2-D & Motion Graphics Editing

Scripting & Creative Assistance, Concept

2D and 3D animations that can be used in both web, e-commerce, social networks.

As creators working together, we have an undying desire to create something beautiful and attractive that genuinely stands out. No matter the subject matter of the content, we always design something that is undoubtedly remarkable, because it is not in our business nature to be "just alright."

We are ready to get to work, are you?