

On a warm summer night, pre-corona virus, going out to a nice rooftop bar was a weekend staple. Sitting at a high top table, surrounded by friends sharing delicious drinks and laughs, was the epitome of a perfect night out. Laguna Beach is the place to visit for a fun night out on the town. You can't go wrong visiting any of these fun rooftop bars!

1. Rooftop Lounge

Rooftop Lounge, situated atop the iconic La Casa Del Camino, is a hotspot for locals and tourists visiting Laguna Beach. Known best for various mojitos, this bar is right on the water with amazing views of the ocean and surfers below. A fan favorite on their menu is a champagne mojito. It's a small deck styled bar with plenty of high top tables and rounded tables for larger parties. Get there early and find a comfy spot styled with pillows and patio couches perfect for you and your bestie to get close in a while catching up on the latest gossip. This bar is ideal for those looking to catch a small bite and chat over delicious cocktails.
