

Get, set, marry! Top your own fashion game

What with the wedding season in, bridezilla is becoming a common term. Channel your inner zen and check out the best collection available to you. The best part about weddings is ofcourse the shopping (Okay, I'm kidding its love but close enough). The bridal designs this year have tried to one up each other much to our satisfaction and we have filtered out the best for you!

1) HSY

When you think of bridal fashion, the first person that pops into your mind is HSY. The sheer elegance, the rich couture collection is leaving us with heavy breaths. Sticking to the darker and gold shades HSY's collection creates a revolution every year. The sequins have us falling in love and the dresses act as accessories relieving you of any heavy jewellery. Save up to bring out your A game at the wedding!

2) Saira Shakira

In case, you are looking for designs which follow the latest trends, a pastel touch with the traditional golden sequins then Saira Shakira is the name to know. A perfect blend of modern and yesteryear, Saira Shakira has awed everyone with her bridal collections this year. The fit of the clothes is what got captured my sight when I was going through her designs!

4) Elan

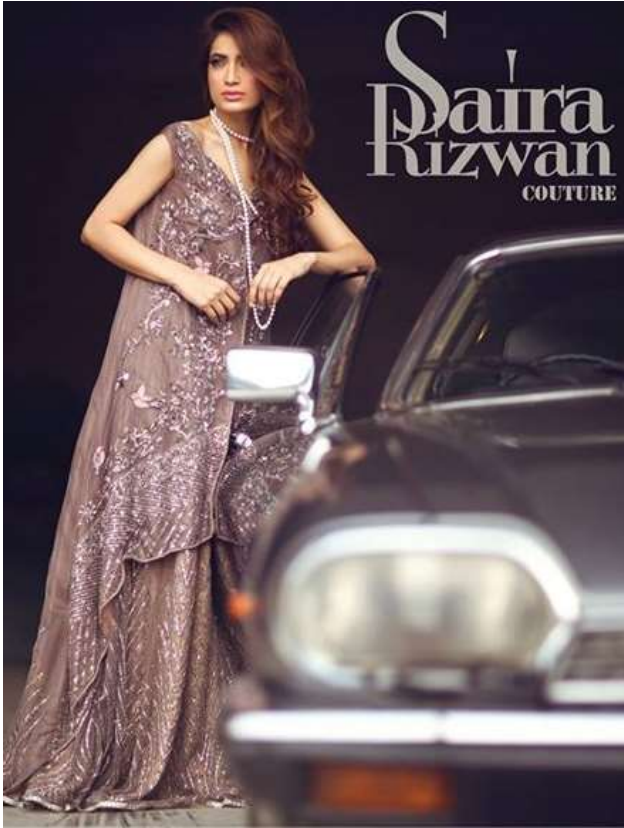

OMG is what you'll exclaim when you see the latest bridal collection. Touted as one of the most reliable designers his luxurious bridal wears are not letting us bat an eyelid! The intricate designs are so captivating and will ensure your groom has no eyes for no one else (wink wink). The silver embroidery is so detailed and you know a lot of work has gone into making your fabulous day more fabulous.

6) Sana Safinaz

Undaunted by tradition, a modern outlook on bridal wear made me give my vote for Sana Safinaz. Last but not the least, the famous designer presented her latest designs at fashion week. The trendiest designs with floral prints, the unconventional styles are brownie points! You have dresses for every occasion whether it be sangeet, mehendi or the actual wedding Sana Safinaz is your savior.
