- Interpret and comply with all relevant deadlines
- Obtain and explain legal forms and documents
- Protect you from violations of your rights

Our familiarity with immigration law means we can help you prepare for any required immigration meetings or hearings. We will explain the process, what you need to know, and what you can expect. Because we understand the personal importance of your immigration issues, we fight hard on your behalf and keep you updated at every stage of your case.

Providing Communicative Legal Support Is Our Law Firm's Passion

Immigration issues can be challenging. You deserve a legal team who will leave no stone unturned in helping you meet your goal. Some of our previous clients say:

- Client Testimonial: Mr. Steve Young was so patient and helpful. He helped me with all the mind-boggling paperwork and was always available to talk to me and kept me updated on the progress of my case. I would highly recommend him.
- Client Testimonial: The lawyers and the case manager were very helpful, so professional, and incredibly nice! Always kept me up to date [on the] process and would answer all my questions. If I ever need them again, I would contact them! Highly recommend!

When we represent you, you are never alone or left wondering about the progress of your case. We fight hard for you and keep you informed every step of the way.

We Can Help You Obtain the Right Visa for You

You or your family in The Villages can apply for two different types of Visas. At ABC Law Firm, our immigration lawyer can help you understand the difference in each and understand which is right for your situation.

We will listen to your immigration story with compassion and help clarify your goals. We also make sure you understand U.S. Customs and Border Patrol (CBP) guidelines and regulations.

What You Need to Know About Non-Immigrant Visas

A non-immigrant visa is for individuals who plan to visit the U.S. for a specific reason and for a predetermined amount of time. A non-immigrant visa is temporary and may be issued for one of the following purposes:

- Tourism
- Business
- Family visits
- Medical care
- Short-term work
- Education or study

There are many other reasons you or a family member might wish to obtain a non-immigrant visa. Review the purpose of the visa and the length of your stay with a member of our team. We will explain the steps involved in obtaining a visa of this type and walk with you through the entire process.

What You Need to Know About Immigrant Visas

An immigrant visa is for individuals whose goal is to remain in the U.S. on a permanent basis. It typically requires sponsorship by a family member or employer. Our law firm will help the special circumstances that allow you to sponsor yourself. These include:

- Specialized employees
- Potential investors
- Special immigrants

We will help you understand your role and the role of your sponsor. We will obtain the forms both of you need and submit them on your behalf. We will also explain each step of the process and stand with you from application to completion.

Our Firm Can Help You Comply With Immigration Law

U.S. immigration law can be complex and stressful — especially if you take on the system on your own. With our guidance and support, you can apply for a green card that will grant you permanent U.S. residency. We will:

- Defining your immigrant status
- Assist with your application
- Clarify green card sponsorship
- Complete your immigration petition

We will help you understand and possibly streamline the process to eliminate stress and worry on your part.

How We Help You Obtain Naturalization Papers

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) guidelines describe the lengthy process of becoming a U.S. citizen. This step can be taken at or after birth. It can also be complicated when undertaken alone. When we represent you, we will:

- Explain the application process
- Explain the naturalization test
- Continually check the status of your case

We will also help you prove your birthplace or that of your parents which can make the process easier.

You do not have to let the threat of deportation take you away from friends and family. Our immigration team also helps individuals and families facing deportation issues. We can help you take the fear out of a frightening and stressful situation, even if you need help right away.
