Without my time in Chapel Hill I probably wouldn't have found the nerve to follow my passion for writing and storytelling to Los Angeles. I wouldn't have learned that owning a brick and mortar business isn't for me, but that I can change lives through a computer screen, coaching virtually. I wouldn't have made some special friends or spent as much time at the beach. I wouldn't have figured out a little more about who I am and what I want if I had t left the comfort zone I had in Charlottesville.
