Welcome Bonus

Are you a newbie player in the amazing world of 22Bet? You are most welcome to explore the thrilling gaming experience that this bookmaker offers. Amongst a vast variety lies the welcome bonus. With an outstanding 100 percent bonus on the initial deposit, you make into your sports betting account. With a maximum payout of 122 EUR (exclusive of deposit), the bookie dominates the market.

This is a positive for users looking to participate in the welcome bonus. You do not need a bonus code or a qualifying bet to enjoy this promotion; simply:

1. Set up your profile.
2. Show your interest in taking part in the bonus offers by activating the "I want to get bonuses" option.
3. Make a minimum deposit of 1 EUR.

In addition, the bookmaker has set the following objectives:

- The bookie doesn't offer bonuses on payments with cryptocurrencies like Bitcoin, Dogecoin, and Litecoin.
- Bonus, once wagered, will be credited and can be exchanged for another 22bet bonus on the VIP program.
- Once bonus accounts are selected, the bonus balance can't be moved to another account.

You can find out more on the website by clicking the "terms of the bonus" option.

Furthermore, if a user desires not to take part in the bonus offers, they can either contact customer service to have the bonus balance removed or deactivate it in their account settings. We recommend using a bonus balance because it increases your chances of winning.

22Bet Bonus

As aforementioned, the bookie provides many bonuses on top of the standard welcome bonus. They are split into two categories:

- Sports betting bonuses:
 - Friday reload bonus: this is given every Friday; users who deposit on Friday receive a 100% bonus up to a maximum of 100 EUR.

- Bonus for a series of losing bets: this is given to users who are on a losing streak to help them recover and increase their chances of winning.
- Accumulator of the day: this allows users to bet on the most exciting events of the day by offering a variety of combination bets to choose from. Giving players a 10% advantage to increase their odds of winning.
- Accumulator bet boost: bettors who place accumulator bets with 7 or more selections are eligible for the accumulator bet boost. In which all of their selections, including losses, receive a bet boost. If any of your selections turn out as a loss, you will receive a bonus; there are no losses with the accumulator bet boost.
- Rebate bonus: this bonus provides a weekly refund of 0.3 percent on your sports bets.
- Casino bonuses:
 - First Deposit bonus: this is available for casino bets and is very similar to the welcome bonus on sports bets, with a slight difference in terms of the bonus. Users receive a 100% bonus up to a maximum of 300 EUR.
 - Weekly race by 22Bet: here users compete weekly for a chance to share a price of 5000 EUR.
 - Daily free spins: this is triggered when a user bets on the game of the day, qualifying them to receive free spins on online casino games. Certain terms may apply to how these bonuses can be got and spent, and these terms may differ from one casino game to the next. Read the terms of use for clarity.

To keep things interesting, 22Bet also offers Event Bonuses, which are well-liked because they provide great deals on special events. The bonus offer is updated regularly and is tailored to current sporting events such as the world championships or the Champions League. As a result, it is worth keeping tabs on the bonus section of the 22Bet website.
