My Services

• Psychoeducational Assessment

Testing will provide insight into your child's learning strengths and weaknesses, which could include learning disabilities and/or giftedness.

• Educational Consulting

We work with parents and schools to find solutions for students' specific learning difficulties.

• Counseling

Laurie and her team of certified therapists are available to help children and adults overcome anxiety, depression, grief and loss, and more.

Gain insight into your child's learning strengths and weaknesses.

Is your child struggling in school?

Let's get them back on the path to reaching their personal potential.

Be My Guest

Compassionate Solutions is located in a house that was converted into comfortable offices.

When you walk in, you'll instantly feel at home.

We minimize the number of people in our practice at any given time to ensure each guest feels comfortable and visits are free from outside distractions.
