Virtual Events

With us, it's Saturday night every night (or whenever we turn on the cameras). Through our team of experienced partners, who regularly work on the sets of professional TV channels, we are able to provide Saturday-night TV quality production without breaking the bank.

Conference live

Conference Live is a web-based broadcast tool allowing you to bring together speakers from remote locations in front of an online audience of thousands.

Studio Hire

Our space is fully equipped with professional studio equipment, and all the crew to operate it, whenever you need it.

Hybrid events

Need multiple breakout streams - with presenters live and virtual - all contributing to the same panel discussions and voting from the room and from home in live Q&As?

Green Screen

Want to host your event from a custom set without the costs? A green screen lets you host from anywhere and your viewers attend from anywhere. It's a win-win!

We're Part of Something BIGGER

Creating any kind of experience means bringing a multidisciplinary team together to work as one. As your single point of contact, we'll manage our network of sister companies from the Paragon Group to make the magic happen.

Our sister companies allow us to extend our global coverage and produce much more:

About Us

We're an experiential brand agency that thinks, creates and delivers the moments that bridge the gap between people and brands.

Creating environments that engage visitors, deliver on marketing objectives and enable those "woah!" moments is what we do. Our work covers all aspects of temporary and permanent activations - from creative concepts and design, to consultancy, project management and delivery

It is said that "we learn of great things through little experiences" and it is this idea that forms the core of our philosophy, no matter how big or small:

Every Experience Matters
