

Support the WA Food Fund

Join us in the battle to end hunger across Washington

WA
FOOD
FUND

Learn more about making a major gift for Washingtonians in need:

Name:

Email:

SUBMIT

With all of the challenges this year - from COVID-19 and the struggling economy - 1 in 5 Washingtonians is at risk of going hungry.

By coming together, we can ensure families stay safe, healthy, and fed.

The WA Food Fund is a statewide relief fund managed by Philanthropy Northwest that is helping stock our food banks and pantries from Seattle to Spokane and Westport to Walla Walla to ensure no family goes hungry in these times of need.

A donation to the WA Food Fund reaches your neighborhood food bank and countless others across the state.

Philanthropy Northwest is working directly with three food relief organizations — Food Lifeline, Northwest Harvest and Second Harvest — to ensure food banks can procure the goods they need.

How You Can Help

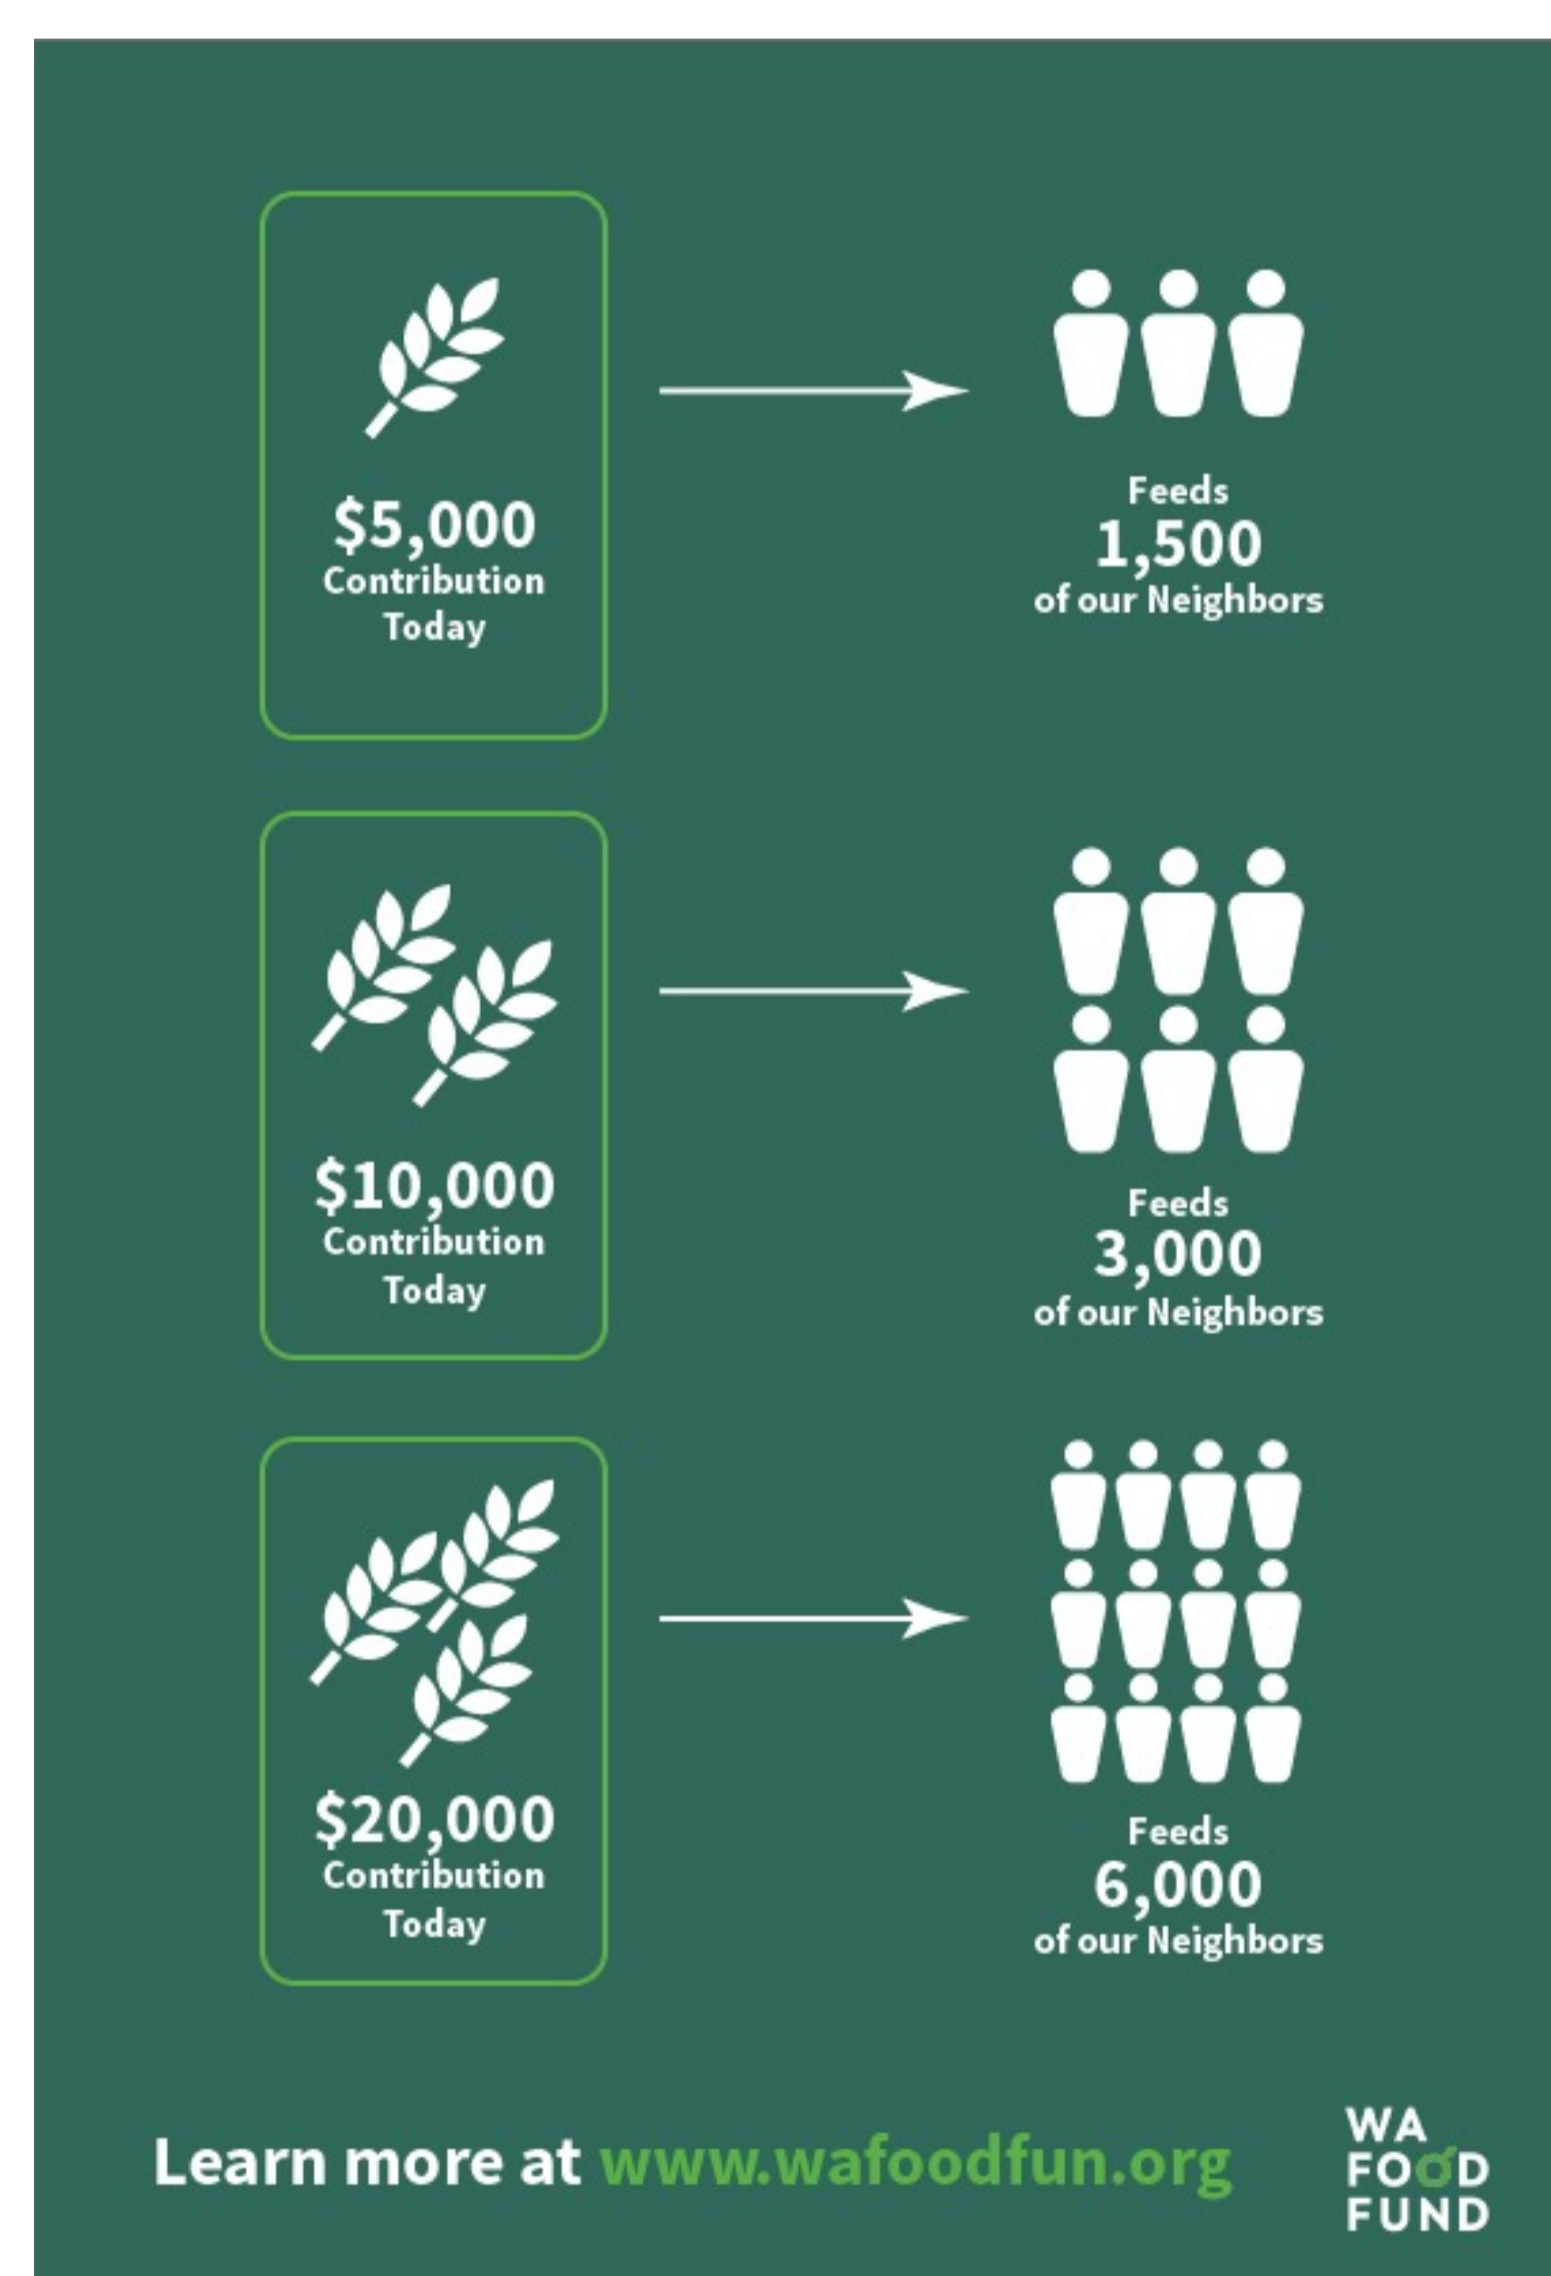

In these unprecedented times, major gifts will have an enormous impact:

To learn how you can make a major gift to the WA Food Fund, please enter your name and email and Philanthropy Northwest will contact you.

Name:

Email:

SUBMIT

Or, contact [employee name] of Philanthropy Northwest at [email] or [phone]. Learn more at www.philanthropynw.org/wa-food-fund.

Coverage of the WA Food Fund

From Seattle to Yakima to Tacoma to Spokane, media outlets have featured the fund's launch, major philanthropic contributions, stories of individuals raising money for the fund, and how the need continues.