ANTHROPOLOGY GRADUATE

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am an Anthropology graduate at University of Indonesia. I'm a fast learner, independent, hardworking, trustworthy, and an open minded individual. I have a sense of responsibility and have a strong will to learn about new things. As an anthropology graduate, I have experiences in research section by observing about people (society to be exact) itself. I also have experiences in organizing events through high school, college, and church organization which also taught me in working with other people as well. I work not just to develop the company I work for, but importantly myself by learning new things everyday in order to broaden my career path.
