What To Wear As Mother Of The Bride

Tayler Finnegan

After all this time, the big day is approaching! You have been there through it all – the venue planning, the flower choosing, the epic hen party. Now it is time to relax and celebrate with the happy couple.

As mother of the bride, you have a very important role to play.

The wedding day is a rollercoaster of every different emotion, and you will be a huge support to your daughter from the minute she awakes.

Traditionally, the mother of the bride is the official hostess of the wedding reception. If you are performing this role, you will welcome guests as they join in celebrating this beautiful declaration of love. Such an important duty requires you to be comfortable, so it is vital that you choose a wedding outfit that makes you feel good.

Whatever your preferred style, whatever the wedding colour scheme, you can find the perfect outfit at Evans. We have included below some of our top picks to take you from the ceremony to the dancefloor!

Beauty Elbow Sleeve Maxi Dress - navy

This stylish sweetheart neckline dress is the LBD but better. With a soft chiffon skirt and hi lo hem, it is a classic option for the mother of the bride. Its dark colour suits occasions in any season and you can incorporate accessories to match any colour scheme.

With a full satin lining, you will be chic and comfortable all day.

Style with: a bold red lip will add a beautiful pop of colour to this classy dress. Pair with some sparkly accessories to take this dress from day to night.

Black lotus dress – black

Thanks to its black base, this lotus dress is perfect for weddings all year round. In warmer months, it looks gorgeous with open toe sandals while winter wear is possible thanks to a pair of closed heels.

This dress is a perfect pick for the mother of the bride. Demure dresses do not need to be dowdy, as proven by this ultra-flattering faux-wrap silhouette and v-neckline.

Style with: strappy black pumps to create a seamless look.

Opulent Wrap Dress - carmine

This stunning dress sure is opulent! With a faux wrap style that flatters your curves, this is an uber-glamorous mother of the bride option. In a stunning shade of purplish-red, our wrap dress will make you look and feel fabulous.

The midi length hemline is balanced with full length sleeves to result in a dazzling wedding outfit that will take you from the ceremony to the reception in true style.

Style with: the striking colour of this dress does all the talking, so pair it with simple black heels and bold drop earrings to keep the look simple but stylish.

Divine Whimsy Maxi Dress – amour red

Mi amor! In a deep shade of red – the colour of love – this halter neck dress is the perfect match for a wedding.

As mother of the bride, you will look lavish and lovely in this bold satin lined dress.

Sleeveless and with a cut-out back, it can be worn on its own on warmer days or paired with a light jacket for more coverage.

Style with: beige heels to finish off this timeless look
