

Rebecca Hyde

MULTIMEDIA JOURNALIST

Current roles

- Media & Comms for Community Action Nottingham (2021-present)
 - Managing social media content for a developing charity
 - Interacting with local charities to create a wider community network
 - Recruiting volunteers for local community efforts, including a foodbank I volunteer at every week
- Intern at Harmless UK (2021-present)
 - Editing videos for the charity's website
 - Mental health and self-harm online training
 - Communicating with and recruiting mental health bloggers
- Co-founder of the NTU rent strike (2021-present)
 - Setting up and monitoring online forms and petitions
 - Managing social media, producing graphics and videos
 - Features on the BBC, Notts Post and The Tab
 - Secured thousands of pounds of rent relief for NTU students
- Writer, The Mic (2021-present)
 - Writing album and single reviews for Nottingham's most popular music publication
- Bar staff at Rock City (currently furloughed)
 - Keep in line with COVID-19 safety requirements
 - Serve drinks, stock bar, manage orders, housekeeping

Experience

- Head of Speech-Based programming, University Radio Nottingham (2019-2020)
 - Managing news, sport and entertainment on URN
 - Creating schedule, approving demos and training students to use industry-level equipment
 - Organising The Battle of Notts OB at Nottingham Motorpoint arena
 - Running the radio station from my bedroom during the first national lockdown, including a live SU elections event listened to by hundreds of students
- Presenter, University Radio Nottingham (2017-2020)
 - Setting up and managing my own show - URN Greatest Hits
 - Confident mic work, production and use of MOJO kits
 - Interviewing local politicians, covering protests
 - Producing and editing festive radio drama
- Fundraising literature event with author Mike Pannett (2016)
 - Single-handedly organised and advertised a talk event with local author
 - Interviewed Pannett in front of a local audience and directed audience questions
- Shop-worker, Furniss Family Butchers and Bakery (2014-2017)
 - Cleaning, cooking warm sandwiches, managing stock, selling stock

Personal Profile

Highly driven aspiring journalist and reporter, currently studying an MA (BJTC) in Broadcast Journalism at Nottingham Trent University. Comfortable behind a mic, producing and editing, enthusiastic radio personality. Nottingham-based but available to work throughout the East Midlands area and willing to relocate nationally and internationally if given the opportunity.

Contact Details

Email - rebeccajhyde@gmail.com

Twitter - [@_rebecca Hyde](https://twitter.com/_rebecca Hyde)

Notable Skills

- Adobe Audition, Photoshop, Premiere Pro and Lightroom
- Experience using an OB studio and managing station call-ins
- OBS
- Music production (as a personal hobby)
- Microsoft Office
- Conversational French, German and Italian

Education History

UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM
2.1 in English and History BA (JHONS)

ST MARYS MENSTON

3 A levels all A*-C

11 GCSEs all A*-B

Other Achievements

- Awarded students' union experience prize for my contributions to University Radio Nottingham
- Gold for best journalism 2018 Student Radio Awards for The Pulse on URN
- Highly commended by the BBC today programme for news show The Pulse
- Helped raise £7,000 for sports relief by cycling for 24 hours