CODE OF HATE AND DISHONOR

We are a work of satire...

We believe that a mad-liberal education is

_____ in qualities of
[adjective]

_____ and
[noun]

_____.
[noun]

We stand for dishonesty, impropriety, and the importance of collegiate disobedience.

We satirize the indignities, wrongs, and pomposity of others, and respect our own right to express disparate beliefs.

We defend the freedom of irony that is the headway of unlearning.

We exercise good tomfoolery and believe in social, cultural, and institutional accountability.

We welcome a diversity of enemies-to-lovers, libations, and cult followings.

We endure the dispiriting monotony, alcoholic relief, status quo, and challenges of a Miami Experience, spiting us to make it everyone's problem.

We demonstrate Hate and Dishonor by subverting and censoring caricatures of our fellow Miamians.

And because we are a work of satire,

We act through our words in ways that reflect our values and disbeliefs.

With a superficial sense of accomplishment,

We will Hate, Dishonor, and disappoint those whom our tuition paid for us to suffer the depression and debt to say,

“To think that in such a place, we led such a lie.”

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

I

We speak truth to power. And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

II

Hate speech, libel, and obscenity have no place in our work. We will never encourage, support, or involve ourselves with illegal activity or unlawful conduct, especially littering.

III

We love fake Christians, abortionists, Jesus-mockers, fornicators, rebellious women, Muslims, disobedient children, masturbators, sport nuts, the prideful, hypocrites, crossdressers, Buddhists, good people, thieves, inventors of evil, the LGBTQ+ community, party animals, idolators, adulterers, liars, anarchists, excommunicated Catholics, atheists, pornofreaks (join our staff), radicals, Satanists, false professors, Hindus, and money-lovers.

The First Amendment protects satire as free expression.

MIAMI MANDATES ANTI-UNION TOGETHER PLAN TO CURB FAM INCEPTION

On February 2, the Faculty Alliance of Miami (FAM) resolved to organize a faculty union, so the university plans to implement a phased approach to keeping faculty in line this spring semester.

The Anti-Union Together Plan (AUTP) “consists of misinformation, open-door policies, and corporeal punishments focused on preventing collective bargaining as a community and fulfilling [the university’s] mission of delivering high-stress, low-paying educational experiences — forever,” according to a recent email from Miami University’s Office of Truth. “Stress is Peace, Academic Freedom is Slavery, Acquiescence is Power.”

The AUTP pledges to monitor the situation via involuntary surveillance of faculty, invite guest speakers and experts in labor management, and give away anti-union merchandise at sporting events.

Faculty are required to wear muzzles to reduce the spread of grievances, minimize exposure to pro-union rhetoric, and keep campus safe from change.

Symptoms of unionizing include picketing, petitioning, talking, or thinking about “new normal” working conditions.

THE WEATHER

Loneliness continues through this evening. Dry spells may give way across the area. Forecasted 8” tonight; expect 5” or fewer. High 69°. Low self-esteem. Feels like you’re unlovable. 0% chance of reciprocation.

ROBERT FROST REGRETS FLIRTATIOUS FLATTERY

Robert Frost recently apologized to Miami University for lying years ago when he called it “the most beautiful campus that ever there was.”

“I was drunk and lonely when I said those things,” Frost posthumously poeticized over text this morning.

Famously known to take the road less traveled, the poet is also infamously known to frequent Brick Street to hook up with English majors (and ghost them).

ANDERSON ARSONIST LOOKING FOR LOVE

Man at large seeks partner in crime / twin flame with burning desire to go on outings.

“May I have your attention, please? May I have your attention, please? There has been a fire reported in my loins. Please evacuate your comfort zone and give love a chance.”

Likes: Arson, cocktails, cooking, smoking.
