

Ashley N. Mahoney

anmahoney7@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

- Utilize storytelling, digital and social media abilities and journalistic experience in a challenging and fulfilling position.

EXPERIENCE

Multimedia Journalist, The Charlotte Post

January 2015 - Present

Charlotte, NC

- Creates and produces coverage of local sports across all levels through game-day and feature articles, pregame and postgame press conferences, and exclusive interviews
 - Professional: Carolina Panthers (NFL), Superbowl LIII (Atlanta, 2019), Charlotte Hornets (NBA), NBA All-Star Game (Charlotte, 2019), Charlotte FC (MLS) Charlotte Independence (USL Championship), Stumptown AC (NISA), Charlotte Eagles (USL League Two), Wells Fargo Championship (PGA), PGA Championship (Charlotte, 2017)
 - Collegiate: Charlotte 49ers (Div-I), Davidson College (Div-I), Queens University of Charlotte (Div-II), Johnson C. Smith University (Div-II), Big South Conference (Div-I), NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, CIAA Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament
- Pulitzer grantee for After Lockdown—a Pulitzer Center supported series exploring barriers people face after incarceration featuring articles in print, a mini-documentary and podcast
- Podcast host of The Creatives and Sports Charlotte
- Shoots photography, edits video and conducts interviews, across all subjects, including hard news, economic development, health, education, performing and fine arts, lifestyles, culture, cuisine and travel
- Expands The Post's soccer coverage through the curation of Queen City Football Chronicle (QCFC) by managing social media and writing features, game-day and breaking news articles. Founded QCFC in 2016

Correspondent, The Charlotte Post

July 2014 – December 2014

Charlotte, NC

- Composed game-day and feature articles at the professional, collegiate and high school levels
- Engaged in postgame press conferences and interviews with athletes, coaches and administrators
- Improved research and reporting skills with a bi-weekly sports medicine column

AWARDS

North Carolina Press Association

2015

- Won second place in Sports Columns

PHILANTHROPY

Mary Mahoney Memorial Scholarship

June 2018 - Present

Charlotte, NC

- Founded the Mary Mahoney Memorial Scholarship through The Charlotte Post Foundation, helping artists to pursue higher education.
- Volunteers with The Charlotte Post Foundation's annual gala and golf tournament benefiting education initiatives

EDUCATION

Bachelor's Degree in English and History

Graduated 2014

Barton College, Wilson, NC

- Alpha Chi Honor Society inductee (2013)
- Studied abroad: London, England (2013); Bangor University, Bangor, Wales (2014)

SKILLS

- Computer: Microsoft Word, PowerPoint and Excel, video editing, photography
- Social Media management: Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat and TikTok
- Individual: Written and verbal communication, attention to detail, time management flexibility