Why Need Wipes?

Our Plant-based wipes safely kill 99.9% of germs and bacteria, whilst providing an environmentally preferred solution. A Plastic Free Future for Wet Wipes is Possible - But Only With Your Help.

100% Biodegradable Wipes

Our naturally derived Bamboo wipes decompose after 6 months. Zero plastic guaranteed.

Tough on Germs, Gentle on Skin

The gentle solution safely removes 99.9% of germs and bacteria from skin and surfaces.

Sustainably & Ethically Produced

We are committed to using sustainable materials that have been ethically produced – including our packaging.

Profit For Purpose

Every sale generates money for Australian environmental non-profits that we are passionate about.

Earth & Skin-Friendly

We are challenging business owners and consumers to reduce their environmental impact by ditching traditional plastic wipes. How? By offering a fully sustainable, biodegradable and ethically sourced antibacterial solution.
