Unique Décor and Extras for Your Rustic Wedding Venue

February 02, 2016

A lot goes into planning a wedding. And whether you're doing it all on your own, or with the help of a professional coordinator, you probably envision a day that you would like to be unique to you and your fiancé. You also want an event that your guests will enjoy along with you. Because you decided on using a rustic wedding venue, you've already stepped away from "the traditional", and have set the stage for country charm that is wonderful and easy to work with.

The natural setting and color palette provide beautiful backdrops for photos and videos; the ambiance is automatically warm, friendly and inviting. So, it's the little extras that can make all the difference in distinguishing your wedding ceremony and reception from any other that you, your friends, and family have attended before.

It's our job to provide assistance to the bride and groom, to help create the day of their dreams. Let us do some of the legwork for you by sharing a few ideas and resources to get you started on finding those added touches that you can make your own.

Show me a sign

Wooden signs and chalkboards are functional and fun items to enhance your rustic décor while helping guide your guests as they arrive to where to find refreshments, the restroom, and table seating for example. Go beyond assigning a flower girl and ring bearer, and instead, have the children in your wedding march down the aisle with a sweet, personalized burlap sign announcing "Here comes the bride."

PaperandPineCo on Etsy is one shop with a variety of customized options. An internet search will yield plenty of options.

Forget the traditional Guest Book that you will rarely look at again, and opt for a keepsake that becomes art you can enjoy and is entertaining for your guests to sign...

Follow your rustic theme with a framed shadow box of sorts, designed for your guests to drop in signed wooden hearts, filling the frame with love. You can search Amazon or Etsy to find something similar.

Or choose to display a personalized wooden Tree of Life art piece with painted leaves for your guests to sign; you'll be excited to find just the right wall to hang this at home.

How about wooden place card holders for your reception?

And finish your dinner with your delicious wedding cake proudly displayed on a rustic wooden cake stand.

Finally, something truly unique for your loved ones: let your guests kick off their boots and heels and get comfy in flip flops, then check out this yummy wedding favor one of our brides shared with each of her guests - special homemade jelly, made with love.

There are so many special touches and unique decorations you can add to make your wedding distinctive. We invite you to take a look at our gallery of photos and videos from our guests who have celebrated their wedding day with us here at Moffitt Oaks, in the gorgeous countryside offering a perfect rustic wedding venue. You might find inspiration from what you see they have done, or it may help get your creative juices flowing on planning the way you want your day to unfold.

Of course, if you'd like to schedule a private tour with one of our professional coordinators, please do it now or feel free to connect with us at info@moffittoaks.com or 1.281.370.6616.
