

Top 5 Jewellery moments of Bollywood!

by Princy Dixit on January 31

Well hello Lady bits! Looking for a good follow up with your favorite Bollywood Diva's? Then look no more cuz we have exactly the right thing for you. Bringing you the top 5 Traditional Jewellery moments of Bollywood in 2018 both on-screen and off-screen. So, save up your excitement cuz it's time for a Jewel quest!

The Deepveer Wedding

Looking as stunning and gorgeous as the couple ever does, they rocked the wedding in a rather more “GRAND” way. One of most eye-catching attractions were the iconic accessories adorned by Deepika Padukone. In her favorite subtle classic look, heavy gold jewelry with diamond works seemed to add all the extra class! Keeping it simple for the Mehendi with Satlada and then reaching the peaks of luxury with the heavy Kundans and Guttapusalu, Deepika's Jewel cast had all of us awestruck!

The Nikyanka Wedding

stories
BY SHARON MOON

In hue's of blooming roses, Priyanka bloomed her way to our hearts with her mind blowing bridal jewelry. Keeping the rest of the outfit prosaic, the colossal silver rani haar necklace added every sparkle to the look. Those Kaleerein, the waistband, the classic Punjabi Chuda and that exemplary maang tika, well Priyanka's look can make any girl go crazy!

Manikarnika

Manikarnika isn't 2018 but it's eminence had all us so dazzled that we HAD to put it here! Being one of the most awaited films of the year, Manikarnika proved to be a major reception to kick start the year for Indian traditional Marathi jewelry laden looks and some fine heritage costume designs.

Kangna Ranaut had always been the #ootd queen, but when talking about jewelry she can be seen flaunting the traditional look even more gracefully off-screen as well!

Going Indian with Sonam

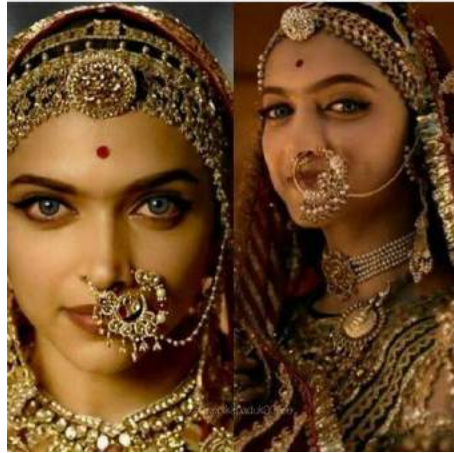

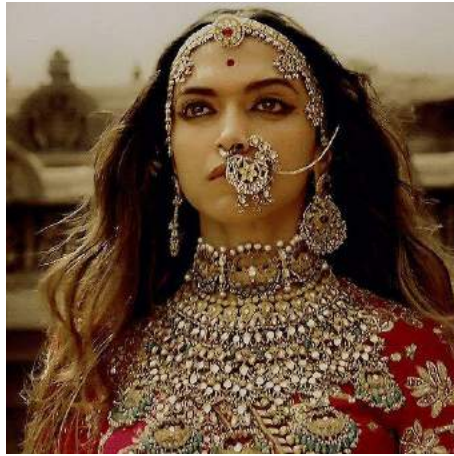

Sonam Kapoor is our forever favorite go-to style Diva and when it comes to rocking the traditional Indian wear, Sonam has always left us baffled by her grace. Be it her own wedding or any other public event, Sonam could be seen slaying the Ethnic look, but what we love the most is her iconic accessories. From heavy Jhumkas to forever loved Kundans haars, or from going extensive to subtle, Sonam Kapoor is always at her best!

Padmavat

The biggest Blockbuster and the most marvelous film of the year, Padmavat was our culmination for heritage costume designs and most importantly, the awe-inspiring jewellery! Padmavat Jewel cast made its mark right from the first look of the movie, and when it hit the theatres, well, it was one of a kind experience. The heavy Rani haars, Satladas, maang tikas and among these, the emblematic Nath was the classic Rajwadi style statement. With The exemplary Royal Jewellery, Rani Padmavati also became the queen of our hearts!

Kabhi kabhi Aditi!

The bonus point And yes! We're talking about Aditi Rao Hydari! The rather unappreciated actor, Aditi has proved in every way that she's the Victor when it comes to fusion wear. Her grace is unmatched and the anomalous Jewellery choice is legit drool worthy! From her classic simple look from Padmavat to her novel appearances, she has dazzled us every time with her standout Traditional accessories.
