

Best Series to watch with your Siblings this Raksha Bandhan

1. TVF Tripling

TVF Tripling is a fun-packed family comedy that is surely the best choice for a day meant just for siblings. The story, as most of you already know, is of three siblings who end up on a road trip together followed by loads of cringy jokes, genuine humor and specially, lots and lots of love. The series sheds light on Indian millennials and their relationship with their siblings in a comedic but still realistic way. TVF also brought the second season which was equally beautiful and at the same time hilarious. And at the end, if the music is good, the comedy is good, bring in some good chai and some good company, what else do you need?
