

GET SHADY

Eyewear enthusiasts, take heart: Tom Ford's AW20 collection hosts a vision of specs appeal

Story by Sophie Clark

Photograph by Colin Ross

Whether used as a tool for avoiding eye contact or simply a way of looking cooler than everyone else, sunglasses are always a good idea. That's right, even in Autumn, and no one knows this better than Mr Ford. This season, Tom Ford's sunglasses are generously proportioned, well-defined shapes that take inspiration from the 1950s and 1970s. The collection features acetate and metal combinations in the signature Tom Ford silhouette and muted colour palettes of brown, gold, sepia and a hint of icy blue, finished with the iconic metal "T" hardware. These guys are cool enough to upgrade your tracksuit to off-duty chic yet just the right level of sleek to complement your tailoring. When it comes to investing in your next pair of shades it's time to go big or go home.

From top: Anders, £285.
Ronan, £615. Cobra, £255.
Lennox, £330. All by
Tom Ford. tomford.com