Refresh, recharge and REINVIGORATE

With characterful blends of unexpected ingredients, Molton Brown's signature fragrances will brighten up any daily ritual this Father's Day

Choosing a scent for yourself is hard enough, let alone buying for anyone else. The more you sample the more confusing it gets – it's a sensory minefield. Luckily, with their game-changing fragrance combinations and aesthetically pleasing packaging, Molton Brown is a guaranteed win this Father's Day. Empower his venturesome spirit with Coastal Cypress & Sea Fennel. A concoction of cardamom, marine notes and salted cypress, this refreshing fragrance is bound to whisk him off to far-flung lands. Or why not spice up his daily spritz with Re-Charge Black Pepper? This aromatic energiser of myrtle pepper, cedarwood and, of course, black pepper will perk up any bathroom cabinet. Whether you choose to upgrade his bath and shower gel, gift an eau de parfum or treat him to a collection gift set, you'll be sure to broaden his scentscape with Molton Brown – unless you end up keeping it for yourself, that is.

Papa's got a BRAND NEW bag

With stacks of style and a new twist on a classic, put your trust in Hermès this Father's Day

If the making of a great Father's Day gift is something thoughtful, a little indulgent and that he would never think to buy for himself, then consider this Hermès racing bag the ultimate gift. Inspired by the world of motorbikes and race suits, the bag is adorned with a dynamic H across its centre, a heroic evocation of speed. The palette of navy and ink blue, highlighted with flashes of cream leather, makes this bag a sophisticated statement piece. Crafted from supple calf leather, the play on materials and texture is the result of exceptional casing and leather assembly work – this bag is more than just a carrier of your essentials; it's a work of art. It's worth going the extra mile this Father's Day. After all, he's earned his (Hermès racing) stripes.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

Giorgio Armani has your father's shoes sorted this spring/summer

The espadrille is the summer shoe solution you've been craving. More elegant than a sneaker and far more comfortable (and stylish) than the flip-flops you reluctantly bring out each year, espadrilles have a certain ease about them, a go-with-the-flow attitude. You'd be hard pressed to find a more versatile piece of footwear for when the sun is shining. Crafted from dove-grey suede with perforated signature detailing and woven straw sole, you're going to want to add these by Giorgio Armani to your summer wish list. But before you do, why not consider treating your dad to a pair this Father's Day? Boosting breathability for warmer climes, but with a promise to chic up any summer wardrobe, they've got your father's name (and Giorgio Armani's) written all over them.

STYLE and SUBSTANCE

With bold prints and an innovative waterproof pocket design, Randy Cow swimming shorts go beyond the beach

There are two types of men in this world. Those of us who see swimming shorts as merely a functional item in our wardrobe – comfortable enough for a few laps in the pool and light enough to aid quick drying. Then there are those who see swimming shorts as a wardrobe opportunity, a chance to make a statement, embrace print and amp up our style game. Rather than decide which category you fall into, why not have the best of both worlds?

With bold colourways and innovative design, Randy Cow swimming shorts tick all the boxes. Choose from pastel shades of lemon and baby blue and playful prints of anchors, sharks and octopuses, each made from environmentally conscious fabric. And with an innovative pocket design these swimming shorts perform both in and out the pool.

Sustainability is at the heart of this brand. Each pair of shorts is crafted from 90 per cent recycled plastic; an impressive 12 bottles are repurposed for every pair. And the revolutionary waterproof pocket can safely keep your phone, keys and wallet dry down to 30 metres deep.

This season, whether buying for your father or yourself, this is a chance to express personality. From embracing his (or your) inner Bond in sartorial charcoal or opting for a vibrant, unforgettable sea-life print, it's time to let the swimming shorts do the talking. So go ahead and get loud this Father's Day.
