As you know, @ClubProGuy, we stand by all of our products... even those purchased on sale at the 1991 South Texas Regional Golf and Gun Show.

Now that is how a Vendor stands behind their product and a player/partner. Not like how Lynx did @ClubProGuy

Comment = I would like to commend whoever is running your social media account. Particularly your twitter account, they recently showed in an interaction with @clubproguy that they have a sense of humor, understand parody, and can help sell a joke. I can pretty much guarantee the next pair of Golf Shoes I buy will be a pair of Foot Joys based solely on this interaction.
